

This time, 'Korean's first double-digit attack point'...Fans will give a standing ovation

Spain's Majorca's "Golden Boy" Lee Kang-in scored his sixth goal in the league. Including the four assists, he scored double-digit attack points this season, another new record following the first Spanish league multi-goal last week.

In the 12th minute of the second half, the 0-0 balance was broken by Lee Kang-in foot.

Lee Kang-in, who sent the ball to the other side with an accurate long pass from the left side, went up to the opponent's side and finished the opportunity he made with a goal.

With his sixth goal in the league and four assists combined, Lee Kang-in scored his 10th offensive point this season.

"Last week, he became the first multi-goal by a Korean in the Spanish league, and this time, he became the main character of the milestone for two consecutive weeks, including the 'first double-digit attack point by a Korean.'"

Lee Kang-in, who is having the best season to receive a standing ovation when he is replaced in the 38th minute of the second half, is more surprising, as is the attack point.

"Lee Kang-in, who boasts a 100% dribbling success rate against Bilbao, has succeeded in 69 dribbles this season and has grown into one of the best dribblers in the league."

On top of that, he has grown physically, so he is not pushed back in most physical fights, and he is not easily caught up by the opponent even at speed.

The coach of his team, who is stingy with praise for his performance, also joined the ranks of praise.
