

“ Darling Harbour “

There are a lot of hotels where you can stay, but it's little bit expensive.

Novotel is one of the hotels you can see the beautiful night neon lights on the opposite side of Sydney City. Also you can use the monorail. It just stops in front of the hotel.

And if you want to go shopping, you can do that just in front of the hotel!

If you want to look around the Darling Harbour, you can walk or ride a mini train. The train moves very slow, so you can look around the Darling Harbour very comfortably.

Attractions.

There are Sydney's Chinese Gardens near the Darling Harbour, but you should pay some fee.

Children can play freely on the playground, and you can play table-tennis outside. There is a table made of stone can play ping-pong. There is also Sydney's Aquarium where you can see a variety of fish. If you go out of Sydney's Aquarium, you will see an exciting fountain. It looks like the shape of a tornado.

Darling Harbour has a lot of restaurants and nice cafes . You can enjoy with local and Import beers at here!! and if you want to try seafood, you must go to Nick's Bar and Grill", it's nice experience for you!! if you love coffee don't miss 'The Rock cafe' .
