

My dream state - Mr. Producer

I no longer suffer from any chronic illnesses. If someone from my family or friend circle does, I can pay for the best therapy on the planet.

While others struggle to fund European feature films via government subsidies and competing/pitching in international film markets, taking 3-5 years just to create a budget...

... I can produce anything with my own money and my movies rival the production companies of Hollywood

I can fuck off to my yacht... Or go to Thailand to focus on perfecting muay thai for the next 6 months... then go to meditate in Tibet...

I will hop on my private jet and get drunk with the Vikings of Scandinavian countries... just because I can...

Then go and drink an espresso in Kyoto.

I have a wife who loves me, I have multiple children, and I am still young.

I have no idea what I could spend my money on, and I'm bored of investing it.

Until one day I am called to an even higher purpose. I am an instrument of the divine.

My mission is to combat Hollywoods' brainwashing and become a general in this spiritual war.

Art is a wonderful thing. It is also one of the most subtle and powerful forms of manipulation. It has corrupted our value systems down to their core.
