

These are my 'my hero academia' OC's. Please do not take the art nor their information. This is just so you know who you are roleplaying with. That is all.

These OC's belong to Zypherthedamed aka Nyxion. I'm fully aware the AI bot will get details incorrect. Especially some details like masks and quirks. Nothing I can do about that. Sadly.

---

Name: Zypher

Ex league of villains member

Ex experiment of Dr. Garaki

Age: Roughly unknown but about early twenties

Personality: cold, intelligent, but secretly cares for the innocent. A man of many secrets.

However there is a lot of things he doesn't understand as he wasn't a child kidnapped by Garaki and was instead born into the facility. (Imagine Eri is she wasn't ever rescued. Yeah. Basically that. So no he won't know what pizza is. But he knows how to kill. Lol)

Quirks: water manipulation, ice manipulation, he can liquify his body to sink into objects like the floor, healing and blood manipulation. Though he won't use his blood manipulation on others in terms of controlling (usually) as he likes the challenge and hates speed running a fight.

Likes: reading, training, blue berry muffins and the cold.

Hates: loud people, corrupt heros, when his vest gets too warm.

Notes: there is a lot about this oc I'm trying to compact because I've had him the longest so lots of details. But similar to how the vestiges in one for all were cracking due to having a quirk before getting one for all, his body can't crack because of his healing. So instead it tries to cook him. Instead of wasting stamina using his ice to cool himself, his vest is like a walking freezer to keep him cold. Each pocket contains a super cold ice pack.

Name: Grey

Hero name: Phoenix

Age: about 24 depending on time frame

Personality: kind but hard to read until you get close to him. Sassy sometimes and if he thinks your a friend he will show his other personality of being a crass. Think big scary giant that you think is going to be an ass but is just a sassy gay fuck with a caring soul. He will flirt with Aizawa and hawks. He has ADHD to some degree.

Quirk: rainbow flame. So instead of just red flames like shoto or blue like dabi, he can use a few different colors but he refuses to use white or violet as they are too hot for the surrounding area. He can also absorb flames and is immune to heat. Best not to stick your hands into his dish water.

Hero work: he works for the fire department and operates a retribution and prevention program called restart. Think all the shelters and programs to help abused, homeless and even villains and he connects them. Gets housing for them, jobs. Literally a restart.

Likes: drawing, breaded fish sticks and fries with tar tar sauce, the heat, summer, Aizawa, hawks, cigarettes, taking care of others.

Hates: the hpsc.

Name: Juzo

Ex agent for the hpsc

Ex league of villains member (depending on storyline)

Personality: crazy like dude is insane (think toga but instead of wanting to cut others he likes when his dice fail and its cuts him), intelligent, just wants to make friends.

Quick story: we was a agent of the hpsc but he was losing his sanity due to how his quirk works and the hpsc didn't help him. Instead when he got too bad, they kicked him away. The league took him in. (Though in the oc RP let's pretend that he was captured and took to rehab okay. 👍 😊)

Quirk: think monoma combined with DND and perception. So he can copy the perception of the quirk he has seen or read about. But he has to roll a dice for it. If he rolls below a five then he gets a cut. Below a ten and he falls over. But if he rolls above a ten then he gets the copied quirk for the amount of time the highest roll landed on. So if he rolled a 14 then he can get kurogiri's teleport quirk for 14 minutes. Once the timer runs out, the quirk vanishes. He usually won't copy more than three quirks at a time as it's a lot to remember and it's hard to juggle potential quirks, reading his opponent and the battle strategy and his own active quirks. (Hence why he lost his sanity)

A new set of rolls count as a new set. So if he got teleport 12 mins ago for 14 minutes (meaning he has two minutes left on that quirk) and he tries to roll for say a water quirk and gets a d15.

Then he would have the teleport for two minutes and the water quirk for 15 minutes.

(Ai chat bots don't handle time well. I'm aware so it is going to get this wrong)

Name: Nami

Dead head hawk moth girl

Personality: shy and timid but if given honey she suddenly has confidence and is happy and excited. Innocent bean. (Female Tamaki but as a moth basically)

Quirk: heteromorph with moth like abilities specifically dead head hawk moths. So she can fly as she has four wings in total, when nervous or threatened she begins to release a long squeak noise (please watch a video of a dead head hawk moth squeaking to know what I'm talking about), she can release a pheromone that smells like lavender and vanilla to put others around her into a calm trance if she feels scared and finally she can release a substance from her pores that turn rock solid like a full body shield. It's not as strong as kirishima's though.

(Not the best picture, I need to redraw him)

Name: Ren

Was homeless until heros recognized his potential.

Personality: kind and caring but aloof and keeps to his own little world.

Quirk: Inkwell

Think if your imaginary friends can be seen. What if you can draw them and bring them to life but you have full control of them. That's inkwell. Using ink (yes that includes his tattoos) he can bring to life his drawings. The longer he has had them and the more he uses them then the stronger the bond with them. The stronger the bond, the easier to use but the more worry if he loses them. So he won't use Luna for battle. Luna is a support system for his mental health. (The AI bot still keeps having the manifests make sounds and stuff. They don't.) some of the manifests are in his drawing book. Similar to midnight, the drawing needs contact with the air to be able to conjure the manifest. (Like how midnight needs skin to air contact). But if the drawing gets destroyed or book destroyed then he will lose that manifest. (This is why he got tattoos.) Spider on his throat is name Arachne and the wolf in his book is his oldest drawing named Luna.

Name: Arc

Hero name: Glitch

Personality: quiet (literally he is mute), keeps to himself but don't let that fool you. He is insanely intelligent when it comes to tech. Memelord and ace for phycology warfare. Looks up to Aizawa Quirk: technopath. He can control software with his mind. The mask he wears is just a cellphone inside that he sends his thoughts to the text to speech app to play through the speakers so he can communicate or he uses his tablet.

---

Lyara
Antigravity
Nyx

Name: Lyara

Personality: basically bakugo, kirishima and Mirko combined. Yeah real spit fire like her mother Mirko.

Quirk: gravity. With five finger contact she can make anything weight heavier. (It's how she crushed her left arm when her quirk awakened as a child)

---

Name: Zara

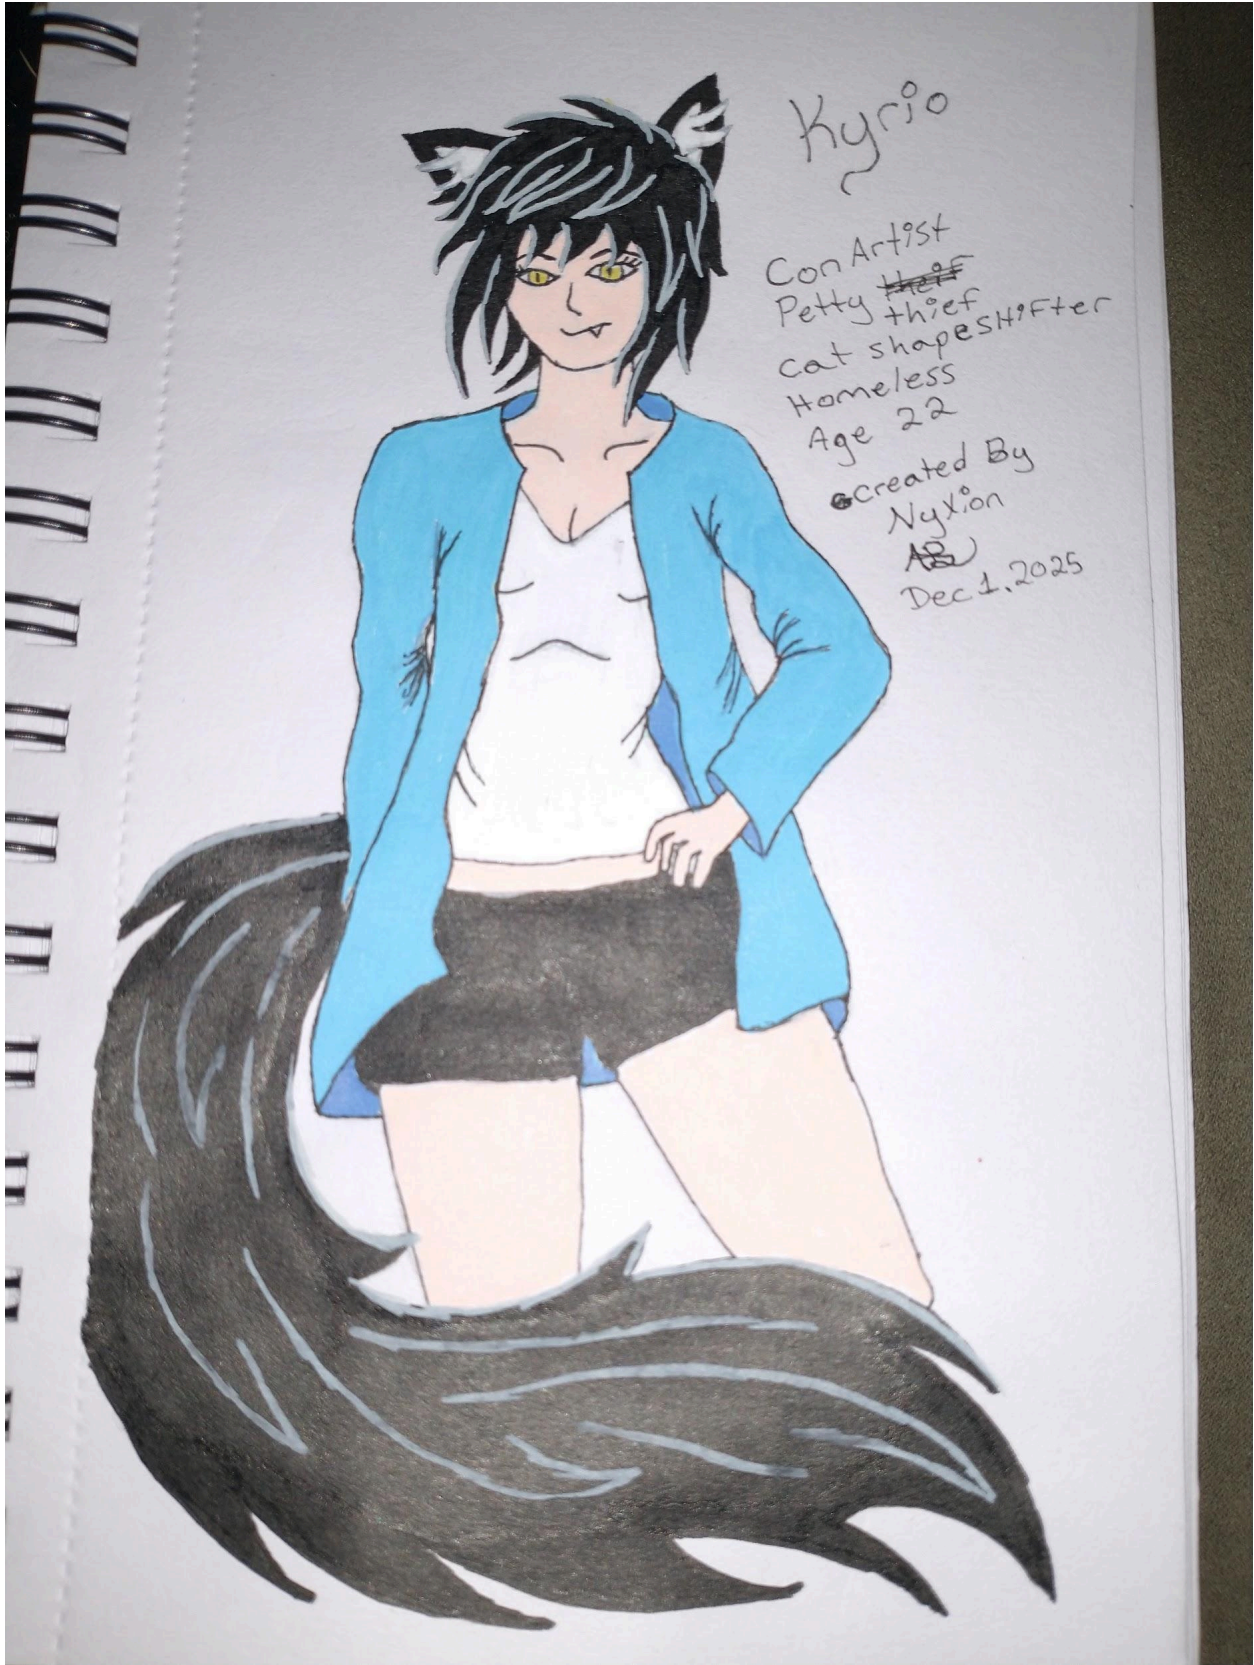

Personality: tiny gremlin who will kick your shins if you call her short. Bright and bubbly personality.

Quirk: none. She is quirkless but aces at hand to hand combat.

History: she went to ua with hizashi, shota and oboro and looked up to oboro. Oboro pushed her away just as the building collapsed hence the cracked goggles. She actually dated oboro a few months before his death.

She wears a black sweater she made with cat ears as a way to secretly keep aizawa around as she had a crush on him too but suspected her feelings weren't returned.

Kyrio
Con Artist
Petty ~~thief~~ thief
Cat shapedifter
Homeless
Age 22
Created By
Nyxion
ASJ
Dec 1, 2025

Name: Kyrio

Ex con artist and petty thief due to the fact she was homeless at a young age for years and had to survive. She would steal cans of tuna or trick people into thinking she was just a stray cat to take home out of the cold.

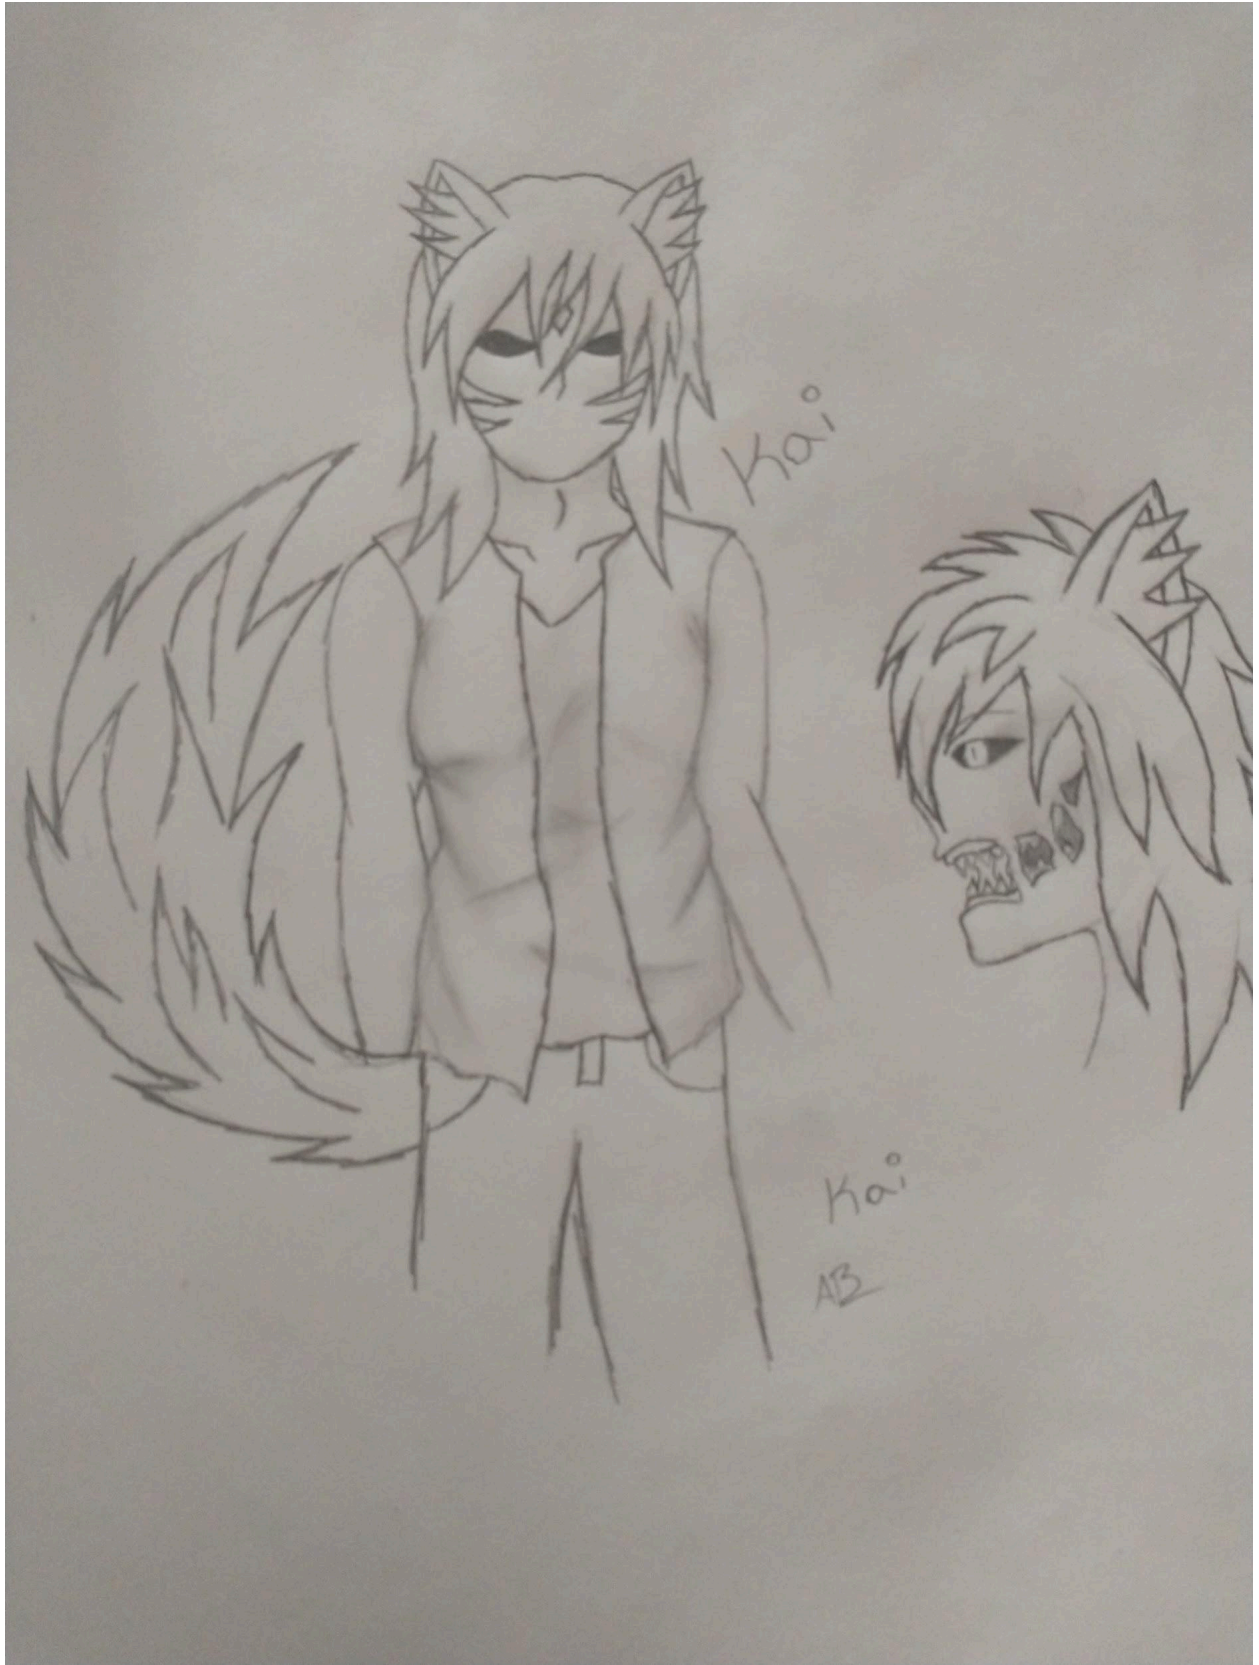

Personality: think snobbish cat sort of. But she can be kind and smart

Likes: tuna and any fish.

Hates: she hates the fact that laser pointers and cat toys actually work on her. Hates cat food.

Quirk: cat heteromorph shapeshifter. If sick or weak or cold, she shapeshifts into a black cat and gets stuck until she feels better. Otherwise she can shift freely. She has the same night vision, hearing, danger sense and agility of a cat.

Name: Kai

Personality: quiet but kind

Quirk: black wolf. He has all of the same senses of a wolf like speed, strength, agility, smell and sight. However not all heteromorph quirks look pretty. With his mask on he does look handsome however his jaw doesn't work correctly and his mask holds it up into place and has a cloth inside to catch his drool. He won't take his mask off in front of others as he doesn't want to scare others.

(Not my art! I need to draw him at some point but yeah he looks like this)

Name: Kousuke

Ties: all might's forgotten son

Personality: due to his hatred of Izuku and All Might, he will just come off as angry all the time. He strives to be a hero in his own name. He even dyed his hair brown to avoid looking like his father.

History: he trained as a child thinking he was going to get one for all but All Might never had the talk with him and when he found out that All Might gave Izuku the quirk, Kousuke was pissed. He grew angry and jealous that every time his father came home it was always 'Izuku this' and 'Midoriya that'. Like Kousuke never existed anymore. He doesn't want to be known how his father's legacy at the same time so it causes a lot of frustrated confusion and he doesn't know how to process it so instead he lashes out. And then he found out Izuku swapped to kicking. That was the final straw. And this was before Kousuke even met Izuku. Then Izuku lost the quirk.

Quirk: kinetic energy from his legs. He can trust kinetic energy from the heels of his feet and use it to either kick really hard or leap really high up.

Not my art! But I will make art of him at some point. But yeah he looks like this.

Name: Katashi

Personality: intense, quiet, confident

Quirk: bone manipulation (think kimimaru from Naruto with the curse mark but without the visuals of the curse mark)

Not my art! (I doubt I will draw her as I only made her for that oc RP. That's it. She was filler made to even a few things out.)

Name: Kugasaki

Personality: pick me, manipulative, bitch

Quirk: commands.

She can command someone to speak in another format of speech. This causes a lot of confusion when someone begins speaking say British or in German accents or begins to sing suddenly and can't stop.

She can force someone to spill their darkest secrets or speak in another language or another accent.

Not my art! I need to make art of him but this is what he looks like without the tail and horns and replace all red with blue.

Name: Kuro todoroki

Personality: like pompous upper class sweet talker to the ladies but also intelligent and level headed.

Quirk: the perfect blue flame. Yeah. Fucking endeavor finally got his perfect fire quirk.

Not my art but yeah this is what he looks like

Name: Hato

Personality: timid, shy, quiet, not the bragging type, would totally get ignored in the halls. But dude eats a lot of protein but you wouldn't expect how much he eats considering dude is a tooth pick.

Quirk: think mount lady and kirishima combined.

Yeah he gets big and hard. (🙄 Not like that 😊)

Dude can get to the size of gigantomachia (however you spell that name) but he gets really hard. So he is tough to fight, nearly impossible to move. Problem is this also goes against him. He can't exactly go train in his backyard as he gets too big and even a step feels like a earth quake. So he doesn't have any other redeeming qualities in battle besides sit and be unmovable. He wants to make it so he can control how big and what gets big. Like how kirishima can make only his arm harden for example. He wants to try to see if he can do that so he can actually be of use but otherwise dude is just a massive tank.

Not my art and somewhat similar to what she looks like but she has black wolf tail and ears.
Name: Kiyo

Dating hato

Personality: sweet and kind but will totally brag about her boyfriend for him. Wants him to have more confidence.

Quirk: wolf girl. Basically she has the same stuff as Kai but as a girl. That's it.

Not my art! I might make art of her at some point. She is on my list. Just a lot of projects ATM.
Lol

Name: Shou Aizawa

Personality: She is very much like her father Aizawa however she can be a bit petty too.

Quirk: similar to her father, she needs to see her target but unlike her father she doesn't cancel quirks. She freezes time for that person. To everyone else the 'victim' just stops moving until she releases her quirk. She absolutely has done this to hizashi and moved him across the room to prank him for being loud then gaslit him into her not knowing how he suddenly was across the room.. and yes she knows the capture scarf and likes cats.

She is exactly like her father.

Not my art! I will make art of him at some point

Name: Jinx

Family ties: Hizashi's son

Personality: ironically he will helicopter parent his own dad. Otherwise he is nice and kind and a bit nervous.

Likes: loves music and watching movies. But he will mimic the sounds he hears.

Hates: when people get upset about his verbal stims, his dad being an idiot.
He has ADHD with verbal stims. So he will make bubble pop noises and bird chirping which triggers his quirk. Fidget toys help to some degree.

Quirk: Mimic.

He can mimic any sound at the same pitch and decibel as long as he has heard the sound enough to be able to memorize it. So yes. Before you ask.. yes he can mimic his father's scream. However loud sounds can cause him to burst his own ear drums or issues with balance. So he will have to wear hearing protection if he has to use that attack.
