

Kerokeras who wants to be uplifted

A Kerokeras who's infatuated with the culture of the aliens who've come to her planet. Wants to be uplifted. Originally you can meet her in the forest and talk to her (or fuck her), show her things, teach her, and eventually help her get uplifted.

Appearance notes:

Flat, wide hips and big butt. Skin pattern: golden green torso with limbs smoothly transitioning to fluorescent blue. Black spots cover the entire body. Reference

First meeting

//can be randomly encountered on mhen'ga at any time

As you're walking down the beaten path through the mhen'ga's jungles, you spot a kerokeras. But she's not spotted you yet. She's hunched over something, so you draw your [pc.weapon] and make your way closer to her. She's got a backpack on the ground, and she's digging through its contents, tossing some items aside while looking at others. Before you can decide whether to intervene or not, she perks up, looking around and spotting you. "Woah, an alien!" she gasps, dropping the battery pack she was holding. Seeing your weapon, she lifts her hands in the air. "This is what your kind does to show peace, right? I'm not like my sisters; I don't want to force myself on you," she says with her hands still in the air.

You hesitate, not having expected this kind of situation. You don't put your weapon away, instead lowering it slightly. "You can put your hands down. What were you doing with that bag? Did you steal it?"

"No... I think?" she says as she lets her hand drop down at her sides. "I found it," she explains, slowly reaching down and picking it up again, holding it in front of her. "I find you aliens so amazing and interesting; I couldn't help but poke through whatever I could find inside it."

You consider her words for a moment and then put your weapon away. She really doesn't seem to be a threat to you. "Why were you doing... whatever it was you were doing?" you ask her, eyeing the bag suspiciously.

"I told you, I couldn't help but get curious about what was inside the bag," she tells you. "I find you aliens... well, super cool, so I couldn't resist the temptation," she continues, picking up the bag again and sitting down on the ground. She continues digging through the bag, pulling out some clothes, which she turns over multiple times, inspecting the garment from every angle before throwing it aside. Next, she pulls out a ration bar. She unwraps it, gives it a sniff before throwing it into the air and catching it with her sticky tongue. She chews on it for a moment before swallowing. "Bleg, not that good," she says, making a face at the taste.

"So, what exactly makes 'aliens' so fascinating to you?" you ask as she pulls a magazine from the pack and flips through its pages. It's an ausar themed porn magazine by the looks of it, with busty canine babes filling the pages.

"You need to ask? You live inside metal birds flying through the sky; you talk through glowing rocks; you have sticks that conjure fire and ice or whatever you want," she says eagerly. You have to think for a moment before realizing that she's talking about spaceships, data devices, and firearms.

"That's not—" you start, but cut yourself off, figuring trying to explain it to her is more trouble than it's worth. "[pc.niceMischHard] Look, you probably shouldn't go around stealing stuff; whoever owns that pack might get mad at you for taking it, | Whoever left that bag, it's their loss, but you probably shouldn't risk it, | Probably shouldn't go around pissing off people by stealing their stuff,]" you tell her.

"Why?" she asks, tilting her head, holding a single finger to her lips in thought.

"Because people don't like having their stuff stolen, and not everyone is going to talk to you like I am," you explain. She looks crestfallen at the denial of her interest.

[Tell Her] [Leave]

[Tell Her]

//Tooltip: Tell her that you can show her the things she wants to see.

You let out a small sigh. It's really none of your business, but you don't want her to get hurt. "You know I could show you some alien technology, and on a plus side, I can show you things you're probably not going to find in a forgotten backpack," you tell her, hoping that it'll both cheer her up and put a stop to her looting ways. She perks right up at the offer.

"Really!?" she asks, her eyes wide and eager. She throws the backpack aside, bouncing next to you, leaning in. "Show me, show me, please," she begs, the earlier melancholy completely gone now. You weren't intending to do so right now, but after a moment of thinking, you grab your codex.

"Alright, but no grabbing," you tell her as you open your codex. Her eyes shine with excitement as you show her how your codex works. You doubt that she really understands any of it. But hey, she's happy; so does it really matter? She listens intently as you speak and explain things in broad strokes, showing the features of your codex to her.

"Can I touch it?" she asks in awe, reaching for it with one hand.

"You can touch but don't take," you tell her. She does so, touching a pair of fingers to the screen of your codex, slowly brushing them against the display.

"Woah, I've never seen something like this up so close," she says. You let her touch it for a moment longer before pulling it away from her. She looks a little bit disappointed, but before she can get sad, you tell her that you'll show her something else. "Oh, okay," she says cheerfully, jumping up into the tree, already leaving. She's quite scatterbrained, it seems. She turns and looks at you from the tree. "I'll look forward to seeing more of your magic, alien," she calls down before jumping to another tree and then another, leaving you standing there alone, left to process the encounter you just had with the strange kerokeras. She didn't even tell you her name.

[Leave]

//tooltip: It's none of your business at the end of the day.

"Well, that's just my advice; don't let me decide how you live your life," you say with a shrug, turning to leave.

"No, you're probably right. An alien would know alien customs better," she says in a disappointed tone. You hear her jump, and as you turn you see that she's up in the trees, having left the backpack behind. "Maybe I'll see you around, Alien," she says before jumping to another tree, soon disappearing from sight wholly, leaving you to process the strange encounter you had with the kerokeras. She didn't even introduce herself before leaving. Realizing that you're standing next to the abandoned backpack, you decide to leave, not wanting to take the chance of getting mistaken for its thief.

"Have you been staying out of trouble?" you ask jokingly. Recalling your first encounter as well as what you told her.

"Yes, I haven't been stealing anything I find," she says. After a moment she perks up. "So, do you have any cool alien tech on you?" she asks, tilting her hip, looking at your belongings, but not grabbing at anything. She's practically vibrating with eagerness but keeping her hands to herself, not wanting to get you mad.

//requires pc cock to be not hyper

"I want to see what that tongue can do," you say, leaning against a tree as you reach down and [pc.clothed] pull out your [pc.cock]| reach down, giving your [pc.cock] a slow stroke.] She's more than happy to oblige as she gets down on the level with your manhood, wrapping one webbed hand around it, giving it a slow pump, and stroking it steadily until it's fully hard and throbbing, the first droplet of precum beading at your tip.

"[pc.cockSmallNormalLarge|Oh my, what a cute little dick you have," she coos, kissing the tip of it, giving it a slow lick, lapping up the precum that's formed there.[Quite the tasty morsel you've brought me," she says, opening her mouth and taking it inside, slowly running her tongue around it.|Oh, well, you're packing quite the juicy piece of meat," she purrs, opening her mouth wide to accommodate for the sizable head of your shaft as she takes it inside.] While her mouth is focusing on the head of your [pc.cock.], her hand strokes the rest of your prick slowly, tracing the veins along it, committing all of your sweet spots to her memory. [pc.hasBalls|Her other hand dips down to cup your [pc.balls], slowly rolling them around in her webbed hand, massaging them. Testing the weight of them, she continues to rub your orbs through the skin of your sack, coaxing them to brew up a thick load for her.]

She lets her hand fall away from your shaft as she starts to take you deeper into her mouth, slowly gliding her lips along your shaft. She traces the veins and curves along your shaft as begins sucking your dick, not taking you all the way yet, slowly pumping her mouth. At roughly the halfway mark of your prick, she starts pulling back. Even as she starts to pull away, she massages the length of your cock with it, wrapping around you firmly, massaging you.

She uncoils her tongue from around you as she pulls all the way off of your cock, wrapping her fingers around you, holding your member by the head as she drags her tongue against the side of your [pc.cock]. While she's kissing and licking the side of it, her hand rubs the tip.

Her fingers encircling and rubbing the sensitive head, her webbed hand spreading precum across your spit-slickened [pc.cockHead]. She squeezes out a pearl of precum from you before bringing her mouth to your tip and lapping it up, puckering her lips and giving your tip a kiss before licking her way back down. [pc.hasBalls] She dips down to your sack, starting with a soft kiss on the bottom of your [pc.balls], and then slowly licking up the side of it. She opens her mouth wider, starting to softly suck on your scrotum. She trails her mouth down to your base, her lips working over your [pc.knot], tongue slowly licking at the sensitive flesh, puckering up and kissing you at just next to the base of your cock, softly sucking on the [pc.skinFurScales], leaving behind a faint hickey as she pops off of your hip. You groan, tilting your head back as your hand falls down to her head, holding onto her smooth scalp. You only hold onto it for now, not waiting to take the reigns just yet.

While your thumb draws idle circles into her smooth skin, she moves herself in front of your [pc.cockHead]. Opening her mouth wide, she coils her tongue around you again, but this time she starts using it to stroke you. Her tongue is dextrous, wrapping around your cock like a naileen. She pulls her tongue back, massaging your length with the slimy oral tentacle. She pushes her tongue back down, jerking you with it. You can't help but moan at the sensation of her long tongue stroking your member, the sound of pleasure freely tumbling from your lips. She tightens her tongue on your dick, squeezing out some precum from you, pulling her tongue up to the tip, and lapping up the pre.

She pulls her tongue back into her mouth, grabbing your [pc.cock] by the tip again and bringing it to her lips. Giving it a kiss, she starts to push it inside, starting to swallow your meat. She steadily takes you deeper into her mouth, this time pushing herself past the entrance of her throat, taking you all the way into her throat, deep-throating you. She keeps her movements slow and steady, taking you into her throat until her lips are pressed against your [pc.base]. When her lips finally touch your [pc.skinFurScales], she looks up at you, her tongue lashing against the underside of your member. Without pulling back, she swallows around your prick, her throat muscles massaging you. She keeps her eyes locked to yours while continuing to swallow around your cock, her lips firmly sealed around your [pc.base]. She holds herself there for a moment longer before pulling back just enough to draw a breath and then dives back in. She settles into a steady pace of pumping her head up and down alongside your cock, sucking you off with gusto. [pc.hasBalls] While she's fellating you, her hands aren't idling either; instead, they're tending to your ballsack, keeping them occupied. She's slowly massaging and rubbing them, cupping the pair of orbs in her hands, squeezing and lifting them as she rolls them around in her webbed hands.]

As she continues sucking you off, you feel the pressure of an orgasm starting to build in your loins, the desire to unload your seed into her throat beginning to start to claw at your inhibitions. You let go of your self-control, tightening the grip on her head, grabbing onto it with both hands as you pull her down towards your base while simultaneously thrusting against her lips. The sound of your hips slapping against her skin rings out in the clearing. As soon as you bottom out inside her throat, you pull back and thrust into her throat again, settling into a steady rhythm of fucking her face, chasing your high. With every thrust you make, you feel the pressure of your impending orgasm building, getting more incessant in the need to unload your [pc.cum] into any wet and warm hole, in this case, her throat.

She's taking the oral pounding you're giving her in stride, her hands having moved onto your hips, keeping herself steady as she swallows your shaft repeatedly, her throat now fully slickened with the precum you've been leaking into her throat for a while now. You pull your hips back suddenly, going so far that only your tip is still keeping her lips spread before thrusting back in, filling her throat again. Any pretense of control you had earlier is long gone now as you're feverishly chasing your high. While you bottom out in her throat, your [pc.base] spreading her mouth open. In the new reckless pace it doesn't take long for you to reach the peak, but you hold yourself from cumming just yet, letting the pressure build until it boils over, the need to unload your [pc.cum] inside her.

After a few more thrusts you throw your head back, a groan of pleasure erupting from your throat as the first rope of seed surges through your manhood, your member swelling as cum travels through it and into her stomach. She swallows the first rope of baby batter, and then the second and third as your cock continues pumping jizz down her throat, your [pc.balls] clenching, filling her stomach.

[pc.cumNormalLargeHuge]She drinks down your modest load easily, slowly starting to pull back as you let go of her head. She makes sure to suck your shaft clean as she removes your manhood from her mouth, her tongue scooping up every remaining strand of your spunk.[She keeps swallowing as you pump the steady flow of spunk into her throat, filling her stomach with your baby batter. More of your cum flows down her throat as she continues swallowing, her throat diligently working over your manhood as your jizz travels through it in pulsing waves. Her stomach starts to slowly swell as you fill her belly with your spunk, the sheer amount of baby batter making her belly look round and sloshing. When your cum flow starts to finally taper off, she slowly starts pulling back, doing her best to clean your shaft of stray strands of your seed. With your impressive output, despite your best efforts there's still plenty of your [pc.cum] clinging to your [pc.cock]. When your tip pops out from her mouth, she gasps, catching her breath for a moment before leaning back in, starting to lick you, gathering up the remnants of your release, and after few moments she pulls back again, having lapped up what she missed earlier.]With the sheer wave of seed that you pump into her belly, it doesn't take long for her stomach to swell so large that the bottom of it is touching her thighs, her belly pumped to the brim with your [pc.cum]. She groans into your shaft, the pressure in her stomach growing as you continue breeding her throat, wave after wave of your seed getting shot deep inside her. After what feels like an eternity you feel the tidal wave of seed starting to lessen, becoming a steady, still notable flow of spunk. Which in turn eventually turns into a small trickle as you've thoroughly drained yourself inside her. She tilts her head back, and then with an audible shlorp she pulls the entirety of your cock from her throat as she falls back, dazed by the more than thorough throat creampie you gave her. She manages to catch herself before she hits the ground, gasping for air, her swollen stomach jiggling with each breath, the obscene amount of cum inside her stomach. When she's caught her breath again, she straightens up again, starting to slowly lap at your length, cleaning your member of the cum that still remains on your shaft. ____ It's quite the task as your entire prick is still drenched in your jizz, the sheer amount of spunk you pumped into her stomach has left your manhood thoroughly glazed. It takes her a while to clean you, slowly her tongue drags alongside your shaft, gathering the cum still on it before swallowing it, and then repeating it until your shaft is spotless once more.]

"Well... I have to say, that tongue, does a lot," you say, panting softly as you lean against a tree, slowly catching your breath. Once you've gotten a hold of yourself again, you push yourself off of it and step closer to her. You reach down and help her up to her feet. She's a little bit wobbly after the long time on her knees[,and the huge amount of cum you pumped into her belly].

"Well, now you know," she says with a smirk on her lips. "With everything we do with them, it only makes sense that I know how to use it," she continues. After having caught her breath, she's mostly back to her normal, energetic self. You could probably go for a second round with her if you wanted to.

[Anal]

"Why don't you turn around and show me that ass you're so proud of?" you say suggestively. Something she's quick to do, turning around and pressing her hands against a tree, pushing her ass out.

"Oh, you want to see my butt?" she asks, giving it a slight wiggle. "I hope you want to do more than just look," she says, pushing her ass even higher, her tiny tail wiggling. As she's presenting her backside so openly for you, both her slit and tailhole on display, you don't waste time beating around the bush. Stepping behind her, you grab her by the hips and pull her against your groin, letting her feel your [pc.clothed|straining bulge|throbbing [pc.cock]] against her ass, the warmth of it against her slick skin.

"I'm going to do more than just look, indeed," you say as you reach down and [pc.clothed|pull out your cock, rubbing it against her pucker.|grab your member and bring it against her puckered hole.] Not wanting to go in dry, you spit into your palm and rub it over your shaft and then start to push yourself into her ass, filling her back passage with your [pc.cock]. She moans, her back arching as she pushes back against you as you continue feeding inches into her. As your hips meet her ass, you return your hands to her hips and grip her firmly again as you start to pull back. As you're pulling back, you can feel her venomous sweat starting to absorb through the skin contact, making your prick throb and drool precum inside her as the venom affects you. But you're not going to let her aphrodisiac venom call the shots, so you slowly pull back, letting her feel every inch and curve along your shaft. She moans softly, her head falling down, fingers gripping onto the bark of the tree tighter as you continue pulling out. Only when the tip of your cock is only inside her do you stop pulling out of her. You hold yourself there for a moment, letting your precum build up inside her back passage as her rim is stretched open around your [pc.cockhead]. After a few more moments, you thrust back in, going balls deep in a single thrust, your hips slapping against her firm ass.

The sound of your hips hitting her ass and her moans fill the air as you start to pump your hips, fucking her ass in steady and deep thrusts. You're still keeping the pace, even though the building heat in your loins is screaming at you to give in and pound her ass as more of her aphrodisiac sweat is being absorbed into you through the skin contact. You're going to ream her out soon enough, but not yet; for now, you sink yourself into her in measured thrusts, making your hips hit her ass repeatedly. As you're fucking her ass, you move your hands from her hips to her sides, slowly sliding them up towards her chest. Her chest might be flat like every kerokeras, but it doesn't stop you from trailing your hands to her front, running your fingers over her flat chest. You massage the featureless front, trying to find out how sensitive it is. As you continue rubbing her, you continue rolling your hips, thrusting your [pc.cock] into her ass, each thrust spreading more of your precum into her anal passage. You can feel her anal ring clench around your prick as your fingers brush over a particular part of her chest. Seems like despite the lack of nipples or breasts, there's still some sensitivity to be found in her front.

You start to slowly pick up the pace of your thrusting, driving yourself faster into her shapely ass, not pulling out all the way. As you begin fucking her faster, her back arches, her head tilting back as she moans, pressing her chest into your hands and her ass into your lap.

The nonverbal sign of pleasure from her is all you need to pick up the pace even more, fucking her faster than before. As you increase the pace, she moans and lets go of the tree and instead wraps her arms around your neck. With her back now pressed against your [pc.chest], it only ends up flooding your body with more of her aphrodisiac sweat. Letting go of her chest, you move your hand up, grabbing onto her chin and turning her head to the side. You press your lips against hers, kissing her firmly, with hunger born from the aphrodisiac now coursing through your veins. You push your tongue into her mouth, kissing her even deeper, your tongue entwining with hers. It's long and slimy, but you push down against it, wrestling for control of it while you continue fucking her ass.

Thanks to the new position of her back constantly rubbing against your front, your body gets a fresh dose of her aphrodisiac-laced sweat every time you thrust into her, your [pc.balls]your [pc.balls] slapping against her clit[hips slapping against her ass.] With every motion of your hips, it gets harder to hold back any longer, the building need in your loins threatening to boil over. Eventually it boils over, the need to pump your load inside her tight ass getting too overbearing. Instead of keeping the same position, you move your hands down to her thighs, scooping her up into the air and into a full nelson. You widen your stance before letting gravity pull her down onto your cock as you thrust up into her at the same time. [pc.cockLargeHuge]in the new position, you can really see how much your cock is making her belly bulge, the outline of your cock clearly visible in her green skin]. You don't know if it's the new position or the force of the fucking, but either way it's enough to make her throw her head back, crying out in pleasure, her arms still wrapped behind your neck. You continue fucking her even as her ass clenches around your pistoning [pc.cock]. At the same time, you push one hand forward, starting to rub her clit, rubbing the sensitive bundle of nerves while pounding her.

The combined assault on her ass and clit is enough to send her spiraling over the edge, her legs straightening and toes curling as the rippling pleasure of her orgasm crashes through her. While she's in the throws of her overwhelming orgasm, you continue to mercilessly grind against her clitoris, rubbing and tugging on it. The additional pleasure on her body is enough to send her spiraling further. Her breath hitches in her throat as the additional wave of pleasure crashes through you. Back arching, toes curling, her thighs spasm as a gush of clear femcum sprays from her folds, soaking the tree she was leaning against earlier. Even as femcum squirts from her, spraying against your hand, you push the digits inside her, curling them and rubbing against her g-spot, making her cum even harder.

The clenching of the orgasm is enough to break the last bits of your self-control. Making you thrust as hard and fast into her ass as you can, chasing the peak of your own orgasm. At this point it doesn't take long for you to reach your peak, and after a few thrusts you bury yourself as deep as you can inside her ass. Then as your cock swells, muscles tightening as the first surge of cum travels through your cock, getting shot deep into her stomach, filling it with your [pc.cum].

You grind against her as you cum, making sure to empty the contents of your [pc.balls] inside her. [pc.cumNormalLargeHuge]After a few ropes of cum and grinding against her in your orgasm, your orgasm starts to taper off, the ropes of [pc.cum] turning into a steady dribble as you start to slowly pull out. When your [pc.cockHead] pops out of her ass, a few droplets of her seed follow, dripping down onto the grassy forest floor. As your muscles contract, another wave of cum gets pumped into her stomach, making it slowly start to sag under the weight of your liquid bounty as you continue cumming inside her. When you come down from your high and start to pull out of her, your seed follows, oozing thickly out of her when you finally unplug her ass, making it flow down onto the ground, pooling under her. The first few thick ropes of your [pc.cum] were enough to make her stomach swell already, but you're just getting started as more of your jizz gets shot through your cock and deep into her guts, flooding them to an excessive amount. But you're just getting started, grinding your hips against her ass as you ensure that every drop of your baby batter gets shot out from your [pc.balls]. With the building pressure from the ludicrous amount of spunk you're shooting into her already stretched-out stomach, the pressure gets too much for her stretched-open pucker, your seed oozing around your [pc.cock], rolling down your length and thighs. When you finally come down from your orgasmic bliss and start to slowly pull out of her, you unplug her ass, unleashing the waterfall of your spunk from her, causing it to flow from her, pooling on the grass underneath you.]

You turn and lean against the tree, catching your breath while the remnants of your release still drip out of [the kerokeasAmarachi]. After resting for a few moments, you've caught your breath enough to speak again. "Your ass is definitely something to be proud of," you say as you ease her down, slowly lowering her feet back to the ground, making sure she doesn't faceplant into the pool of cum you two made.

"Well, you certainly have a dick to be proud of," she says breathlessly, wobbling slightly on her feet, recovering her strength again. She holds her hand to her belly as she turns around, facing you, a blissful grin on her face. "I can still feel your cum inside me," she murmurs as she runs her hand down her front, dragging her fingers through her slit, coating them in her feminine juices before licking them clean. She leans forward, planting her hand on your shoulder and leaning in, pressing her lips against yours, kissing you. While it's not the hungry, almost feral kiss that you gave her earlier, it's still deep and passionate. She entwines her long tongue with yours. At the same time her hand travels down to between your legs, her fingers wrapping around your spent [pc.cockNounSimple]. She slowly strokes it, gathering up the remnants of your release with her hand and bringing it up to her mouth as she pulls back from the kiss. She slowly licks her fingers clean, making sure to put on a show as she does so. You feel a small jolt in your loins at the sight, but she either doesn't notice or care, continuing to lick her fingers. When she's done cleaning herself, she takes a step back, and the smile on her lips tells you that she's absolutely aware of the effect she's having on you.

"Well, I shouldn't keep you any longer, I'm sure you have all kind of important alien business to attend to," she says, preparing to depart. You could either let her leave, or you could pin her down and have another round.
