

I'm gonna use <https://www.calculator.net/dice-roller.html> as I don't know any other dice-rolling websites unfortunately.

Since this is Normal Mode there's no rolling of dice for the reviews, just divide the number of dice earned by 3. So we gotta hit those dice!!

And that Normal Mode-ness means I get to choose the specific Kinks under the Fetish the subjects get, so you get to deal with my mildly vanilla tastes.

In the MHA setting, I am decreeing the Custom Fetish to be Numbers. Group sex, orgies, double penetration, multiple toys, multiple cumshots, multiple creampiees, the fetish is about more than one thing going on. Perhaps a little broad, but definitely fun.

For extra fun and randomness I'll select a list of potential girls and boys, then roll to decide which 4 (2 girls, 2 boys) will be my targets.

Girls:

- 1) Ochako Uraraka
- 2) Tsu Asui
- 3) Momo Yaoyorozu
- 4) Kyoka Jirou
- 5) Mina Ashido
- 6) Tooru Hagakure

Boys:

- 1) Izuku Midoriya
- 2) Katsuki Bakugou
- 3) Denki Kaminari
- 4) Tenya Iida
- 5) Shouto Todoroki
- 6) Eraserhead (I'm an Aizawa stan, sue me)

Girls rolled 3 and 4, so I'll target Momo and Jirou at the same time. Let's make this ship canon, boys. Speaking of boys, they rolled 3 and 5, thus Kaminari and Todoroki are also on my hitlist.

Let's start with someone a little easier and have Nymvian bump into Kaminari first, then work our way up to Todoroki, then finish off with the double whammy of Momo and Jirou.

In this setting Nymvian is known to have the 'Corrupting Influence' Quirk, but that isn't a problem for the strats. He has a minor criminal record, but it was totally an accident and no charges were pressed, he's not a villain!! He's is Normal Guy working Normal Job. Waiter? Barista? Two part-time jobs? It doesn't matter too much. Overall Nymvian is a humble guy who is easy to make friends with. And should definitely be introduced to your other friends, just sain'.

Target 1: Denki Kaminari

Fetishes: 1, 7, 6

Wholesomeness, Machinery, Inhuman. Interesting, I can work with this. Under Wholesomeness let's give him some Praise, Kissing, and Dirty Talk (Loving) kinks. For Machinery we'll slap on Vibrators, Fucking Machines, and Electrostim kinks (I may not personally be into electrostim but c'mon it's Kaminari). Inhuman, best fetish, will get Animal Anatomy, Anthros, and Tentacle kinks. With some creativity they can all be connected into one sexy package.

Nymvian's adventure begins when he bumps into Kaminari. That is literal, they're both walking along the street and oops! Nobody fell or anything, but the guy Kaminari bumped into suddenly looks different?? A werewolf-lookin' guy with his dog dick hangin' out and electricity sparking off of the tentacles on his back?? (Minor touch of Arousal to get the ball rolling) Nymvian will drop the illusion and apologize, saying that Kaminari probably saw something weird, haha, sorry about that. Kaminari presses, and he explains that his Quirk makes people see their deepest desires. Sounds fake but ok, Kaminari thinks. (Is he thinking about it again? Arousal) Aw shoot, I gotta get to work, the manager of [MHA Lowes] will kill me! Hope to see you around sometime, it was nice meeting a really cool Hero! (Ping of Arousal)

Now Kaminari has an idea of where he can find this guy again, and the impression that apparently that was his deepest desire. Really, huh? Hopefully he mulls on that throughout the day, and every time he does the Change+Fate'ing Nymvian gives him another little nibble of Arousal. For funsies let's also give him an Arousal reward when he is doing laundry, a weird intrusive thought (Telepathy) that he could sit on the corner of the dryer and bust a good nut with the vibrations. Pssh, haha, what a weird thought! ... Unless.

Let's build him up for a bit, perhaps a week. Kaminari might see Nymvian passing by in that area again, with a little smile and wave in his direction, and every time he does he gets a 'flashback' (Perception) to that hot electric-tentacle werewolf guy (Ping of Arousal). Maybe once Fate conspires to have him momentarily pinned against that dryer and man those vibrations feel good. Are his friends complimenting him more than usual, or does he just feel a little flushed when they do now? Sometimes his phone charger acts up in his mouth and the jolts he gets from it are especially tingly. Maybe there is something to what that guy said.... Could Kaminari find him and talk to him some more? He works at [MHA Lowes], it shouldn't be too hard to look for him. And he also likes seeing Kaminari, right? The guy said he was a cool Hero! (Ping of Arousal)

(At this point Liliith pulls him in for a progress report. The report is that he's definitely open to it but hasn't really acted on his corruption just yet, but Nymvian assures both of them that he's got a big climax ready to go. Just come find him.)

Indeed he'll find Nymvian working at the hardware section of [MHA Lowes], and he greets Kaminari with some excitement and also says he looks great today! (Stronger ping of Arousal)

While the two are chatting about whatever, Nymvian's form keeps flickering between his human form and that hot electric-tentacle werewolf guy thanks to Perception, and at this point we might not need to give an Arousal reward because ngl, that dude does look kinda hot, right? Kaminari blurts out something about his Quirk doing stuff to his brain, and Nymvian apologizes for it again. What exactly do you see, anyway? Nymvian is always interested in what others see when subjected to his Quirk, everyone's interests are so different! Blushing quite a bit, Kaminari describes the hot electric-tentacle werewolf and Nymvian nods along thoughtfully. That's some good taste you have, dude! (Ping of Arousal) And, y'know, another part of the Quirk is that Nymvian can temporarily take on that form, wink. He'll even brush aside his bangs to wink at Kaminari!

M-maybe that was too forward, Nymvian blushes and explains that he just thinks Kaminari is so cool and nice (Ping ping baby), that he'd at least like to spend a day with the Hero. After a moment of thought Kaminari asks when he gets off of work. In about an hour, actually! How about some dinner at [MHA Applebees]? With a grin Kaminari says it's a date, and Nymvian tries not to gush about his excitement. And one last passing intrusive thought (Telepathy) that the tools n shit around here would be way more fun with dildos on the ends of them (Ping!) as Kaminari heads out of the store. Man, why is everything making him horny now? Maybe he needs to jack it soon.

About two-ish hours later and the two of them are enjoying a date at [MHA Applebees]. Except from Kaminari's perspective Nymvian more frequently looks like the hot electric-tentacle werewolf than human, and goddamn that is a hot dude, isn't it? Every time their hands touch or brush he swears he feels the little jolts of electricity too (Pushing and stretching Perception as best as we can here) Nymvian notices how hot and bothered Kaminari is starting to get and asks if he'd like to go somewhere else with a shy little smile. Though embarrassed, Kaminari thinks that's a great idea and asks to go to Nymvian's place. Surprised but excited, he agrees and the two head out.

Nymvian's house is a modest place (Thanks Lilith!) and he invites Kaminari to get comfortable. And also notes that while he likes Kaminari's pretty eyes (Ping!) on him, he has been staring really intensely all night. What's he hoping for? With a nervous cough Kaminari reminds him about that whole 'take on the form' thing, and Nymvian smiles knowingly. (I'll cash in however many Favor points it takes to actually make this happen) With some effort he's now truly the hot electric-tentacle werewolf, and he invites Kaminari to come and feel for himself. Sure enough, when he touches Nymvian there's fur and shit, and pleasant tingles of electricity when he strokes the electrified tentacles. We'll start things off with a sweet kiss that starts to get more intense (That is way hotter than it should be thanks to Arousal). Especially with the jolts of electricity and the way Nymvian's tongue is so long and flat in this state (That's an Arousal ping for Animal Anatomy!), this is way more awesome than he thought it would be. When they pull away Nymvian admits that he can't hold the form for a long time, 5 minutes at most, so they'd better make the most of every second, huh?

First we're working Kaminari's ass nice and open. The wolf dick (Big Arousal ping!) Nymvian is sporting looks pretty big, so he's gonna need it. More sparks of electricity jump between the two of them as he's stretched, and Nymvian declares him ready for the real action. He'll enter slowly and carefully, praising Kaminari for being able to take it and how good he's doing. Once hip-deep Nymvian gives him another sloppy and awesome kiss and tells him how amazing he feels around this wolf cock, like he's being sucked in. (Praise kink and Dirty Talk [Loving] in one go baby). Then Kaminari is in for the fuck of his life, the two of them are using every second they have left of the form's time limit. As Nymvian is running his hands along Kaminari's body, the electricity is literally flying and probably energizes Kaminari even more because of his Quirk.

Finally we'll top it off with knotting his ass and maybe kicking off his orgasm early with Arousal so he gets that bliss when he feels the knot locking inside his ass. The 5 minutes is up now, and Nymvian returns to his human form. More praising of how Kaminari took that dicking so well and how hot it looks with the cum still oozing out of him, and he's blushing but sheepishly accepting the praise. Buuut could they maybe do a little bit more? Nymvian isn't quite as satisfied as Kaminari, and Kaminari says he thinks he can drudge up the energy for one more round.

Nymvian scurries off to his room and comes back with a few fun toys, namely some bullet vibrators, two sybians (Let's do an Arousal ping to remind Kaminari that mechanical sex toys exist and are awesome), and a few dildos that can be attached to said sybians; two tenta-dildos, a wolf-dildo, and a horse-dildo. Kaminari's eyebrows are up in his hairline, but he's not as weirded out as he feels like he should be. In fact, his dick is twitching back to life at the prospect of messing around with all this stuff. He does ask Nymvian why he has two sybians, and he blushes a little and explains that he wanted to enjoy one himself, but also really wants to see how cute Kaminari looks (Big ping!) while he's also on the toy. Which of these dildos do you want by the way? Kaminari eyes the tenta-dildos and the wolf dildo before settling on the shorter of the two tenta-dildos. Nymvian picks the horse-dildo (What can I say, he's got a bit of a size kink) and shows him how to put it on the sybian. Slowly and sensually both of them take the dildos, Kaminari's ass still stretched from the tenta-wolf romp and Nymvian's pussy practically dripping after the tenta-wolf romp. Once they're both seated, he shows Kaminari how to turn on and adjust the vibration setting of the sybian.

It feels like Kaminari's whole sexual life has been leading to this moment. He starts riding the tenta-dildo, slowly bumping up the vibrations, hearing Nymvian's loving and descriptive commentary. Riding faster and faster, those vibrations going straight to his dick, the bumps of the tenta-dildo hitting his prostate just right. There's just one last thing, and he knows it. He and Nymvian are sitting pretty close, close enough that Kaminari can yank him into an electric kiss, and both of them moan heatedly into each others' mouths as their orgasms crash over themselves.

They both slump to the floor in the afterglow, panting and sweaty and still twitching but so completely and utterly satisfied.

Alright, let's tally the scores, this is long enough as-is.

Nymvian understood Kaminari's thought process (+1), and he definitely took the first step in this corruption on his own (+1), I am of the firm belief that he deserves more praise and recognition for his strengths and will definitely get some now (+1,+1), and I'm pretty sure I should get some dice for nailing all the kinks? (+?). Look, as long as I manage to get 12 dice and get a 4-star review I'm happy, and I know I didn't get 15 dice for a 5-star review.

~~4 pages of writing just to get to the end and admit I probably didn't do this right.~~ Such Is Life God™ said this was cool so I'm giving myself a kick in the pants. I have a happy customer in Kaminari! I'm sure Lilith is very proud of Nymvian's first foray into the Good Corruption world.

For now I'll simply ask Kaminari to introduce Nymvian to some of his friends so he can get to work on his next target. More help may be needed in the future, but hopefully this can be done on his own.

Target 2: Shouto Todoroki

Fetishes: ~~6, 8, 1~~ 7, 4, 9

Hmm. Inhuman, Body Worship, Wholesomeness. Maybe a little too similar to Kaminari. Debating if I should spend points to reroll. Lilith I humbly request a reroll of fetishes, and I had 9 freefloating points before I also requested the form change, so I'm pretty sure I can afford a fetish reroll.

New roll is Machinery, Costume, and Custom: Numbers. Hell yeah, I can definitely work with this. Vibrators are a must under Machinery, but we'll also add in generic Sex Toys and Sexbots. Costume is a super broad fetish, but we'll take Police Uniforms, Business Suits, and Royal Attire. My Numbers fetish will manifest as Double Penetration, Group Sex, and Multiple Orgasms. And yes, there is a difference between group sex and orgies, the former is focused on one person and the latter is multiple parties going on at the same time.

Admittedly getting all the Costumes in one go will be tricky, so that might be the more difficult of the fetishes that will need to be spread out. I'm going to need to think of a game plan before really attempting this. I think that plan is gonna need my dear succretary Linda to pick up a mastery of robotics to give me a hand, which Nymvian will happily oral her in exchange for. Reward your workers for their efforts!! The Imp-terns will just have to wait for their turn.

Another small change of plans, though. Let's switch up the Police Uniform and Business Suit kinks to Knightly Armor and Lingerie. The Royal Attire kink is gonna get leaned on to set up a 'royalty' theme, and it's a shame that we didn't get the Roleplay fetish but that could be a fun bonus kink we open Todoroki's eyes to. Nymvian waltzes out of that pocket dimension with a plan and hopefully the means to pull it off.

Again the start is fairly simple. Kaminari introduces Nymvian to some of his college friends (Maybe as his boyfriend? Nymvian w-wouldn't mind that at all...), and this is where he and Todoroki meet (Also there are Momo and Jirou for later). He's the kind of formal guy to maybe accept a handshake, and this is where the seed gets planted. Because when they touch, Todoroki sees for just a moment several robots clothed in gorgeous clothes befitting royalty (Start things off with a light ping of Arousal) Though he doesn't say anything, Nymvian can pick up on the slightly startled look in his eyes and play the 'oh haha sorry did you see something weird?' card again. It's fairly natural, don't judge him!

Todoroki would probably mention something about him looking like a robot, and he might ask for some design details because what a coincidence, Nymvian has an engineering degree and works on building robots in his spare time! (Thank you for the crash-course and assistance Linda this is why he went down on you for like half an hour. Also an Arousal ping to remind him that the robots were super sleek and well-designed.) Nothing more serious for a while as Nymvian chats with Kaminari and his buddies and gets to know them. This time we're not going to be as formally involved, as Todoroki is a fairly closed-off guy that Nymvian might not have the time to build that trust with. Deadlines to meet after all!

When he heads out to work, Nymvian actually pops a few illusions of him leaving but actually stays close by invisibly and keeps an eye on Todoroki. This is going to be a much longer game than Kaminari, but the start is very similar. Every time Todoroki mulls over what he saw, he's getting a few Arousal tidbits to keep his interest piqued. Maybe if he notices other robots, say from the Support department, he'll also get little Arousal pings but of variable strength. The more human-like the robots are, the stronger the ping. The fancier the robot, the stronger the ping. We're still keeping these pings mild, but we want him to focus on human-looking robots that are very fancy and/or well-crafted.

How wonderful that, by some amazing universal coincidence, there's a formal dance at the college in about two weeks! And the theme is 'Royalty'!! (Whoever pulled this off, be it Linda the succretary or Lilith herself when crystalizing the reality, will also get all the oral from Nymvian. Even if that didn't need to be part of the payment.)

Now when Todoroki is looking for his outfit, he's gonna get All The Pings. Ballgown dresses, lavish suits, crowns, tiaras, *cap*es, maybe some people are being clever and getting fitted for knightly armor. All the gorgeous, fancy clothes. Nymvian's gonna try really hard not to go overboard with the Arousal, but literally the only thing he's able to monitor for that point is the Telepathy because Todoroki has the poker face of a god. And perhaps a few times Fate twists so that his dear friends insist he goes shopping with them, and now he has to Deal With being subject to multiple hot people in elegant royal clothing and asking his opinion on the fit and looks of it all. (Y'all know lida is going with a suit of armor to a royal-themed dance and even Nymvian is struggling to not drool over it) Oh, we also have to plant the seed for Lingerie, so let's use a touch of Telepathy to remind him about the Victoria's Secret he goes past to get to this particular store, and use Arousal to connect the dots about wearing that kind of underwear under all these gorgeous clothes.

Let's pluck at Fate a bit more so that pretty frequently when Nymvian and Todoroki are hanging out with their mutual friends, the subject of robots tends to come up. Turns out, a good word from Kaminari led to the school contracting him to lend his robots to help with the dance! And look at these design schematics Nymvian brought! (Linda will get all the tribbing she wants for this valuable information) See the mechanism in the joints for the life-like movement, especially in the hands? Could he maybe get some ideas for what type of metal the surface should be made of? It has to look good polished to a shine and engraved with elegant, regal flourishes! Should Nymvian maybe tweak the strength of the robots? Maybe person-carrying strength, or more? The facial design is really his pride and joy, with the gorgeous mask-like design, they'll look fit for a royal ball! This part at the hips? Oh, h-haha, that's nothing, j-just a prototype uh... Harness? No it isn't for sex toys, get your mind out of the gutter!! Huffy pout and blush, playful nudging on Kaminari's part, the people all around Todoroki maybe giggle a bit at such a naughty implication, Arousal to remind him that he is surrounded by hot people.

Perhaps after a particularly hot n heavy day Todoroki's composure finally crumbles and the guy needs to jack off. Nymvian still is keeping out of sight, buuut he did leave a little present for him using Portals. While he's fantasizing about whatever he may be fantasizing about (Hopefully more than one person wearing something nice!), he bumps the headboard of this bed and what's this? A bullet vibrator? An Arousal spike will goad him into taking it with no questions, and after a few seconds of having his fun with the vibrator let's help Todoroki bust the best nut he's had in a long time with an Arousal-induced orgasm. But... He needs more. A few gentle pings of Arousal to perk him back up, give him the confidence to see how many times he can make himself orgasm. First fantasy was with the knights, now he's obviously got to move on to noblewomen they were serving. And those ladies want more fun, sliding out of their lavish trappings to reveal the silky lingerie hiding underneath those dresses. Look at that, two more 'best nuts ever', good for you Todoroki! Knew you had it in you! That bullet vibrator sure was handy!

(Review time! And so far the reviews are looking good, though Nymvian does admit that the Vibrator, Lingerie, and Sex Toy kinks are probably lagging behind a bit. Todoroki assures him those are definitely there before he's put back in his room in that post-post-post-climax haze.)

Maybe another day marinating in all this delicious costuming and robotic reminders, Nymvian even shows off a few robots that'll be serving around the dance! The male model is such a dashing knight, the female model is such an elegant lady. See, the lacy stockings and garters will also add to the experience! (Nymvian has such fun knowing that Todoroki is positively chomping at the bit thanks to his Telepathy)

We are at a bit of an impasse here. The female classmate that is strongly associated with Todoroki is Momo, but soon enough she's (hopefully!) going to be busy with Jirou. And in an ideal world the dance will end with a bisexual Todoroki sandwich. We could go Full Gay™, but I'd rather not be pigeon-holed as a yaoi provider just yet.

But who comes to Nymvian's rescue but Uraraka, sheepishly asking if he knows a good place to get stockings like that at a good price. Oh, don't worry about it! He happens to have a spare set, and she can have it all on the house! (Thanks sugar mama Lilith)

Of course the thought hits Todoroki. She's going to the dance with that. He's seen her dress, it's a lovely and simple piece befitting her, and she's probably going to wear that under it. Nymvian almost doesn't need the Telepathy to hear his internal screaming.

And as Fate just so happens, Iida arrives and excitedly exclaims that his helmet is finished and his entire Royal Knight Armor™ set is complete. Todoroki is dying inside and Nymvian is incredibly excited for the dance. The seeds have been planted, the sprouts have been tended to, all he needs is the iron shears to snip off this fruit and enjoy.

The night of the dance. Todoroki is stewing inside his own feelings and mild arousal (au-natural too!) in his princely attire. (Nymvian is there as Kaminari's +1, to enjoy the party and make sure everything goes smoothly)

It must be torture to be in a room of so many beautiful people in beautiful costumes. But there seems to be a problem! Kaminari mentions that some of the robots are acting harmlessly weird, like following loners when they separate from the dance, and Nymvian explains that it's a security protocol so there's not as much trouble. The idea is now in his head that he could theoretically walk off and one of the sexy costumed robots will follow him wherever he may go. Todoroki probably doesn't even need Arousal at that point to realize the possibilities.

That possibility is making a beeline for the nearest empty hallway not even 5 minutes later. (Nymvian praises Kaminari for how natural that was and how helpful he's been, and also promises to fuck after the dance)

Let's give him a few minutes to do what he will with the robot. Be it exploring it's design and chassis, testing the limits of it's programming, or just going through the opulent knightly armor for the dildo hiding inside the robot's pelvis compartment.

Hey Iida and Uraraka! Have you two seen Todoroki? Nymvian saw him walk off into a different area, and he's not exactly at the point where he could talk to him if anything is bothering him, you know? And it's been some time since he walked off...

Now his two friends are concerned for Todoroki, and have to go off and look for him! (Nymvian and Kaminari are giggling to each other because this is gonna be the best part)

Oh my, look at the state the two find him in! A little Arousal nudge, and even the observing Nymvian is surprised that Iida is the one to step up first and ask if he could give Todoroki a hand. Uraraka also pipes up that she wants to join too! Some Arousal straight to his dick helps Todoroki accept their offers for that Group Sex kink. Some of that Space-twisting gives the three (plus the robot!) some privacy to have all kinds of fun, including some Double Penetration and hot Vibrating action from the robot's interchangeable dicks.

Boom, bisexual Todoroki sandwich with a sexy robot, royal, knightly, and lingerie costumes, a few sex toys, at least one vibrator, and all the orgasms he could possibly want. Nymvian and Kaminari hi-five before he's pulled away with Todoroki to conduct the review.

We didn't try to be overly friendly with the rather aloof guy (+1), he's probably not gonna see robots or dance-worthy outfits the same way ever again and now has a bullet vibrator for all his personal needs (+3), Nymvian only really nudged him along with Arousal rather than do anything overt (+1), he's become better friends with at least one person (+1), the idea of teamwork and cooperation has definitely expanded to other scenarios (+1), and there's something to be said about letting go of all your ~~anger~~ tension by cumming your brains out a few times (+1). Kaminari was also a great help that he got praise and kisses and at least One (1) Fuck for! (+1)

Is that 15 dice? That's 15 dice and $15/3 = 5$ star review baby. Todoroki's eyes have been really opened and he appreciates Nymvian's help in truly enjoying his kinks!!

Now for the big finale. The Les-Beans.

Target 3 + 4: Momo Yaoyorozu and Kyoka Jirou

Fetishes: 6, 2, 8 | 1, 6, 3

Alright, they at least have a shared fetish in Inhuman. Momo's Exhibition and Body Worship will be fun to play with, and Jirou's Wholesome and Bondage lends to many possibilities.

Momo in particular has Anthro, Tentacles, and Giant Bugs; Stripping, Put On Display, and Voyeurism; Oral Obsession, Pussy Worship, and Hands. It won't take much to connect everything into a sexy spider-themed gentledomme who dotes over her 'prized catches'.

Jirou also gets Anthro and Tentacles, and Hormonal Lust; Affectionate Sex, Praise, and Aftercare; Blindfolds, Shibari, and Immobilization. She'll be the perfect 'prized catch' of any spider-themed gentledommes out there.
