DELAWARE, Ohio -- A motorist who fatally shot himself Friday in a parking lot in the village of Ashley was identified as Michael Young of Waldo, Delaware County Coroner W. Daniel Traetow said yesterday.

Young shot himself in the head with a 9 mm handgun as Delaware County deputies were trying to talk to him.

Police declined to identify Young on Saturday.

Police had sought Young after receiving a teletype from Sharon Township police in Franklin County to be on the alert for an armed motorist who had threatened passers-by at a gas station on Rt. 23 near the Delaware and Franklin County line.
