

David Schneid

David lives in Summit with his wife Irina and their two children Sasha and Robbie. We are glad to be members of Temple Sinai and have been grateful for the inclusive and welcoming Jewish community it provides. David is excited to be a part of the board and spends his time making sure Sinai continues to grow and prosper. In his free time David spends as much time as he can with his kids, concerts, and the occasional Formula 1 race.

David works in FinTech at BlackRock.
