

I don't know what else to do here so I need to lay my cards on the table here for everything that has happened in the last few months. Some may have noticed I've maybe been harsher or lower energy lately on streams. Well there is sadly a very good reason and it relates to financial struggles. It all started back at my old job at Buffalo Wild wings. Despite spending every penny moving into a new place, which was a mentally stressful situation we were forced into due to plans falling through but I won't recap to much since you mostly know this already, my then current job at Buffalo Wild Wings was only having me work 3-4 days and more or less 6 hours every day I was working for 12$ an hour. And some days I was sent home early on those days so I would be lucky to have about 20 hours some weeks, Well under a living wage or hours especially with other problems. I tried picking up shifts and talking to my manager about it but nothing was done which led me to applying to TXRH and I am forever happy for it as I do love my new job so much more than my last one and it pays more. I may not always get 40 hour work weeks but the up pay is more than enough to make up for it and it's weekly pay too!. However, though my current hours and my current wages can now sustain me and season thanks to budgeting, the time I was underworked has left us behind on bills and rent due to the lack of wages from my old job Especially since they gave me next to no work for my last few weeks there. Now we owe money for the time I was making next to nothing. I hate asking for help with this especially with everything that has happened at the beginning of the year but it really was a situation out of my control as far as earning a living wage. So I'm asking for any help possible as far as catching up. I'm not expecting to pay every last cent off frankly but if we can pay off a good portion of it the apartment is okay with not committing to anything drastic and they have been very understanding which I am grateful for but would obviously like to not be in depth at all if I can help it. So if you made it this far, please consider helping out by donating to my donation link below. Of if you prefer to donate directly I'll also leave my direct paypal. If you donate a large amount please leave a note or something on how I could possibly repay you if at all be it a game suggestion, a tier list suggestion, your own episode of a stream be it waifu wars or "best and worst music in X year" stream or an invite to my server or ANYTHING really! Every bit helps us greatly and even if you can't pay please share around to those who maybe can help. Thank you so much for reading and hearing this old drunkin dragon out
