

CERAMIC DALMATIAN ENTERTAINMENT
"BEAT BRIAN" SIGNUP SHEET

This is the signup sheet for "Beat Brian" on Ceramic Dalmatian Entertainment on Twitch and Discord. It will be hosted by Travis and Brian and it will be based on the German game show "Schlag den Raab." If you are interested in being a contestant, please put your name in the signup sheet below with your name, three specialty subjects (please include one of an academic or studios nature) and some way to contact you online. The premiere will be Friday June 30, 2023 at 18:00 Pacific/21:00 Eastern and we are expecting the game to last at least 60 minutes but not more than 90, including a pit stop at the one-hour mark if necessary.

If you cannot play Friday night please list availability--we aim to play in the last week of each month.

Travis will choose which of your three specialty topics that you will play--Brian will have one week to research your topic, but you will not know which one has been chosen until reaching the end game.
