

Greek Heroes Test Review (No Grade - Just a Study Tool)

Hercules	Perseus	Bellerophon	Icarus	Daedalus
Medea	Jason	Theseus	Atalanta

A witch

An inventor

Has a happy ending

Has super strength (more than your regular hero strength)

The Captain of the Argos

Fell from the sky to his death after falling off Pegasus

Dies when he puts on a poisoned robe

Dies when a boat mast hits his head

He pushed a kid out the window

Ditched his fiancée on an island and married her sister

Got turned into a lion

Got married because of a golden apple distraction

Completed 12 labors

Killed the Nemean Lion

Raised by a bear

Killed the Chimera

~~Killed Fought~~ Threw a rock into the dragon teeth men.

Killed Medusa

Killed (or helped kill, depending on who you ask) a large boar

Killed his brother by mistake

Killed the minotaur

Killed the Hydra

Captured Cerberus

Fell from the sky to his death after flying too high

Kills a sea monster about to eat Andromeda

Freed Theseus from Hades

Turns Atlas to stone

Tames Pegasus

Created the labyrinth

As a baby, he was locked in a trunk with his mother and thrown into the sea

Hera helps this hero

Hercules

In order to “bless” Hercules’ mother, Zeus took what form?

Hercules is his Roman name. His Greek name is a form of which god/goddess?

As a toddler, Hercules showed he was different when he:

Hercules wasn’t often clever, but he did use his noggin when he completed which task?

Atalanta

Atalanta would only marry someone who

Atalanta falls in love with Melegar, but he dies when

Bellerophon

Why does Bellerophon get sent to die?

The Chimaera is a cross between a lion, a serpent, and a

Bellerophon’s mistake was thinking he was worthy enough to

Perseus

Perseus wishes to kill Medusa because he needs her head

Which group of three women share an eye?

How does Perseus kill his grandfather?

Jason

Pelias was told to beware of a man with:

Who was NOT an Argonaut?

Which one of Odysseus’ perils did Jason also face?

Which of these things does Medea NOT do for Jason?

How does Medea kill King Pelias?

Theseus

Theseus takes the land route to find his father because

Theseus is known for his vow

Theseus' father jumps to his death

Theseus was killed when

Daedalus

After Daedalus escapes his island imprisonment and goes into hiding, Minos tricks him into revealing where he is by

The Trojan War

For each of these gods and goddesses, know if they fought for the Greeks, the Trojans, or neither

Zeus	Hephaestus	Athena
Poseidon	Ares	Aphrodite
Hades	Apollo
Hera	Artemis

Agamemnon	Menelaus	Priam	Hector	Odysseus
Diomedes	Paris	Aeneas	Ajax	Nestor
Andromache	Cassandra	Calchas	Achilles	Patroclus

King of Troy

King of Mycenae (but sees himself as the king of ALL Greek kings)

An oracle for the Greeks

King of Ithaca, very clever

Prince of Troy and best fighter of the Trojans

Big fighter for the Greeks, strongest, but not smartest by a long shot

Kidnaps Helen

Achilles' buddy or cousin or lover

Sees the future, but no one believes her

Great fighter for the Greeks - even able to fight off Ares

Wife of Hector

King of Sparta - Helen's husband

A former Argonaut - there's a funny story about that...

Great fighter for the Trojans - leads some of them to safety (relatively speaking)
Greatest warrior of all time - has weak heels

This war begins with the wedding of Thetis and Peleus. Zeus and Poseidon were both interested in Thetis, but let a mortal marry her instead. Why?

Which goddess was NOT invited to the wedding?

In the beauty contest - she bribes Paris with being a great warrior

Odysseus tries to get out of going to war by:

This hero was given a choice - long life and fame, or short life and obscurity

How many Greek ships set sail to get Helen?

Who built Troy's Walls?

Agamemnon ticks off Achilles by

Paris vs. Menelaus - who wins?

Diomedes wounds all of these gods/goddesses/heroes EXCEPT:

After an intense duel, Ajax gives Hector a:

The Greeks rally when Achilles comes into the battle and are shocked when they find out:

Who creates Achilles' new armor?

After the duel, what does Achilles do to/for Hector?

Who kills Achilles?

Who commits suicide after getting tricked out of Achilles' armor?

Whose idea is the Trojan horse?

What happens to Hector's son?

Who kills Agamemnon?