Second email:

WRONG WRONG WRONG

You may be spending hours and hours looking over your website analysis

You tried very very hard to make your website stand out paying tons and tons of money for ads

But are they working?

I hope the e-book on the previous email solved some of your misconceptions

The key to make a website successful is not about the design

It's about the value you can give

if audience are genuinely think your website is useful

providing value is KEY

Spend sometime review your own website

Do you think the audience will think it's helpful to them...?
