

Mexico City Food Guide

The food scene in Mexico City is awesome and we hope you have time to explore it. We've compiled recommendations from our own travels and our trusted friends. We encourage you to check out as many as you can!

Food Tours

Bikes & Munchies Tour

Steven & Katy took this tour on their first trip to CDMX. It's a great way to get the lay of the land so we encourage you to do this on your first day in the city.*

Club Tengo Hambre

Breakfast

Lalo - Great brunch spot full of locals and foreigners alike. No reservations so go early as you'll have to queue. Get the chilaquiles and french toast!

Lardo: - Get the Chilaquiles!

Café Toscano – Try the chilaquiles verde con huevo estrellado y pollo

Maque - More old school establishment in Condesa, just off parque mexico

El Cardenal (Zocalo location) - Saturday or Sunday mornings full of families and old people, 98% Mexican, get there early or you have to queue.

Freïms - Cute coffee shop in condesa w/ good food

Rosetta Bakery - Seriously the cutest and most delicious bakery! A must-stop, grab a pastry and stroll the streets of Roma.

Buna/Sartoria - former is a coffee house and latter is an awesome Italian restaurant. They are both in the same venue though and do the most insanely delicious mexi breakfasts.

Lunch

Contramar - Arguably the best fish restaurant in town. Excellent for long lunches. Go around 1pm. You will love it!

Fonda Mayora - Brunch in Condesa

Lardo - Good for lunch too! Make a reservation

Catamundi - It's a great anytime restaurant if you're in Polanco.

Street tacos on the corner of Colima St & Orizaba St

Taqueria el Greco - Tiny teeny place but the tacos here are awesome - a mix of Greece meets Mexico. Super local.

El Parnita - Day, casual quirky restaurant run by charming old lady.

Huset - Cocina de campo, mexican. Has a lovely garden, good for day/lunch.

Dinner

Rosetta - Rustic and chic, italian with Mexican ingredients. Amazing roast beef. Make a reservation.

Huset - French food and so cute

Daikoku - Good sushi love love this place best ice cream cafe dessert (camelado con helado de lichi)

Matisse - fancy place with the most delicious things ever

El Hidalguense - Casual spot with excellent barbacoa, open Friday-Sun

Azul Historico (centro) - Delicious restaurant in the same building as our wedding, popular all times of day.

San Angel Inn - a bit of a drive but a special experience. Courtyard restaurant with exceptional service, lethal margaritas, and authentic Mexican vibe.

Taverna- mediterranean- TikTok reco

Fancy Restaurants

Pujol - No.4 in LATAM, No. 1 in Mexico, No.20 in the world); make reservations early! We did the taco omakase + drink pairing and it did not disappoint.

Quintonil - started up by the ex-number 2 from Pujol

Maximo Bistrot - Mexican food with a french twist in la roma.

Yuban - Oaxacan food

Sushi Kyo - Ok so I know that it seems weird to do sushi in CDMX but the city is known for having some of the best, freshest fish. Fantastic dinner, authentic sushi experience

Drinks

Hotel Casa Awolly - rooftop cocktail bar in Roma

La Clandestina - for Mezcal
