Question	Answer
Will my teacher be Zooming with me for the duration of my class period?	Your teacher will be Zooming with you in the beginning of the class to take attendance, provide direct teaching, and introduce the day's activities. In addition, your teacher will be Zooming with you at the end of the class to answer any questions, review learning, and give instructions for the next day. Teachers are not expected to stay Zooming for the duration of the class.
How do I know what day I am on?	Each morning, when you log into your google classroom titled: BMS Homeroom, there will be an announcement letting you know the day that we will be following.
What do I have to do when I have PE?	Like every class, your PE teachers will also be providing instruction to you through google classroom and Zoom.
I forgot some of my things in my locker/school. Am I able to get those materials?	Unfortunately, at this time, we are unable to let students into the school. Our custodians have been instructed to give the school a deep clean. Your teachers will be more than understanding/flexible with you during this time.
What if I am unable to connect on Zoom?	Don't panic and no need to get frustrated. Simply email your teacher and/or communicate through google classroom that you are unable to connect via Zoom. Your teachers will give you credit for the class if you are participating in the assignment. If you continue ongoing issues, please reach out to Ms. Trahan at trahanr@barringtonschools.org .
What do band students do for their band period? I left my band instrument at school.	This past weekend, Mrs. B emailed the students and coordinated a time to pick up instruments. If you need your instrument, please reach out to Mrs. B.
I have a new Trimester 3 special (ie. art, general music, steam, etc.). How will I get the new google classroom?	Trimester 3 allied art teachers will be emailing your google classroom class codes.
What do I do during FAST?	Teachers will have open office hours during FAST. If you have a question, please Zoom into their FAST class.

What if I have wifi issues?	If you are having any technology issues, please use this below form: Distance Learning Tech Support Google Form If you have any specific tech questions, please email Ms. Trahan at trahanr@barringtonschools.org?
How do I log into Zoom?	Your teacher will have a Zoom link embedded into their google classroom. You will not need to download the Zoom app in order to connect. Simply click their link.
What if I left my materials in school/locker?	Unfortunately, students/teachers/parents are unable to access the school at this time. Your teachers will be more than understanding/flexible knowing not everyone will have their materials.
What if I need a chromebook? and/or have a loaner chromebook?	If you are in need of a chromebook, because yours is lost/broken, please use the form below: Distance Learning Tech Support Google Form Someone from the technology team will be in touch with you soon.
