

Chocolate_void was an void cultist exploiter,
He hacked in games like sfoth, and other games I forgot
Said on the youtube channel Chocolate_void was first mentioned, "he soon quickly got banned due to being super annoying and sometimes scaring people"
In his new profile, it says he misses "them".
Could they be his other exploiting and void cultist friends?
probably not because we can see they have not been deleted anymore (Dolos is now back?!) Dolos also made a comment on my post, thinking I was Chocolate_void, so maybe she could have been looking for him, but for what?...

Idk

It also seems important to say that the review of the tempest under the same YouTube channel was deleted a few weeks ago abruptly It's confusing also because this deletion of the video was a few days before the deletion of the game, "the tempest" by SwAeJuDiNoli
The channel <https://youtube.com/@savethroughnoli?si=EUU3pVG380WBjTep>
Is named the void cult, so could Chocolate_void also have been related to all the other myths, noli, lezuz, mallorina, etc???

Another thing, in the reddit post I made a few weeks ago about him, someone said, "this looks the thing i saw two days ago"
Which means someone saw Chocolate_void which means he is real.....
