

Hi Seniors,

Applications for the Batavia High School National English Honor Society (NEHS) are now open!

NEHS recognizes students who have excelled in English while providing opportunities for leadership, service, and scholarship. It looks great on college and scholarship applications, but it's also a chance to connect with other students who love reading, writing, and great conversations.

My vision for NEHS is to make it more than just another club. I want it to be a community where we celebrate literature, have fun, and participate in meaningful events like book discussions, theater outings, writing contests, movie nights, and literacy service projects.
