TVES Library Choice Board #5 April 27th-May 1st

Please select at least one of these (hopefully fun!) activities to complete.
Let me know which one you choose to do in the Completion Form Here..
Please email me if you have questions or just want to say, "Hi!": tmanzke@tves.k12.vt.us

Choice #1- Reading or Red Clover Awards	When we were last together in the library, K-3 had begun reading the Red Clover Book Award Books. I love this award because kids get to vote for the winner. Although I wish I could read these books with you, I was able to find video read alouds so you can still hear all the books and vote. Most of us were at one of these two books. Most classes ended on either Drawn Together or Julian is a Mermaid My friday classes, Mrs. Cole and Mrs. Jutras, have not had many of them due to Winter Activities! Here is a link to videos of all the books in case you missed one, or want to read them again! Red Clover Read Alouds
Choice #2- Mo Willems	Mo Willems is one of our favorite authors at TVES! You can check out Mo's website for printables and games: Pigeon Presents For even more Mo Willems fun (including fun follow-along doodle videos), visit the site below: Lunch Doodles with Mo Willems
Choice #3- Maker Stations	Are you feeling antsy at home? Get creative and use materials that you already have at home to complete one or more of these really great STEM challenges! If you don't have the exact materials listed, just use something similar. Maker Station #2
Choice #4- Write a Poem	Did you know that April in National Poetry Month? These interactive sites guide students through writing a poem. Get ready for some creative fun! Theme (or Shape) Poems Acrostic Poem Diamante Poem
Choice #5- Who Is/Who Was?	Want to learn a little history. Check out this site with all sorts of biographies! There are interactive games and free printables. If you have Netflix, be sure to check out the Who Was Show! Who Is/Who Was?
