

Democracy and Prosperity

The Democratic Redditors Party Policy Platform

The government has failed to provide for its citizens for much too long. With a weak absentee in the presidency and the infighting left controlling Parliament, it is truly no wonder that the DOR suffers from many of the problems it does. That's why it's time to forget the left, forget the right, forget the ideological warfare and focus on yourself. Your rights. Your right to free speech, your right to food and water, your right to property, your right to liberty, your right to live.

The Democratic Redditors Party will fight for your civil rights first and foremost. As a progressive libertarian party, we believe in the power of choice for each and every individual. We believe the AFANA bill was a grave mistake and should be repealed. We believe that all opinions within Reddit TOS should be voiced and shared. We believe that censorship is the ultimate crime in a democracy. Democratic Redditors of Parliament will fight to remove the power of Parliament to impeach legislators and judges, and leave impeachments to the GMs for serious, TOS-violating cases. Democratic Redditors of Parliament will also fight to remove the power of Parliament to ban political parties and ideologies, something that was recently highlighted and found to be very unpopular in the AFANA bill.

The Democratic Redditors Party will fight for your right to live - to have basic resources and employment. We will empower the private sector to ensure that every citizen can be employed, and will set up a new, reasonable benefits program so that those who cannot work can still live a prosperous life. We will also set up a new tax program, ensuring the working class faces the minimum possible taxation while the rich will pay their fair share.

The Democratic Redditors Party will tackle corruption & refuse to bend to ideologies that want to remove our democracy & lessen the voice of the working redditor. We will refuse to undemocratically make corrupt bargains that do not fit the goals of our party and the goals of the nation, because we do not fight for ourselves and for a simple seat of power, we do not fight for a corrupt establishment that will sell themselves out, but for the redditors of our Democracy and the redditors who work hard each day to make it a better place.

The Democratic Redditors Party will fight for you. Not for its ideology, not for seats in Parliament, but for the working citizen. For those who cannot be heard, we will let your voices scream. We are the voice of the voiceless, and the ones fighting for the silent. Vote for the Democratic Redditors Party.
