

Constitution of the Lipscomb University
Student Government Association
2026-2027

PREAMBLE

We the Student Government Association establish this Constitution in furtherance of the following outcomes:

That we may facilitate communication, coordination, and cooperation with Lipscomb University's faculty, staff, and administration on behalf of the University's undergraduate students.

That we may advocate for and enact the desires of our diverse student population in the spiritual, academic, and social spheres of Lipscomb University's affairs.

That we may work to support the success and growth of current student organizations and aid in establishing future student organizations.

That we may represent the interests of all students by a good-faith effort to work impartially on behalf of all constructive desires of our student body

And that we may daily realize a greater vision of our university by action, attitude, and conduct, while providing for student participation in its affairs.

For these reasons, we hereby establish this Constitution of Lipscomb University's Student Government Association.

ARTICLE 1. GENERAL PROVISIONS

Section 1. Name

This organization shall be known as the Student Government Association of Lipscomb University—hereinafter, SGA.

Section 2. Objectives

The objectives of this association shall be to promote the Christian values and principles of the university, to provide liaison with the administration, to sustain the spirit and the morale of the student body, to enable campus leadership, and to serve as a catalyst for spiritual, academic, and social growth.

Section 3. Motto

The SGA motto shall be 1 Kings 3:9, “So give your servant a discerning heart to govern your people and to distinguish between right and wrong. For who is able to govern these great people of yours?”

Section 3. Election Procedure

- A. Rules governing the elections and campaigning procedures shall be adopted by the President in the form of either personally adopted said rules or through the appointment of an Election Commissioner to adopt said rules.
- B. All rules must be approved by the Sponsor.

ARTICLE 5. LEGISLATION

Section 1. Types of Legislation

- A. Bills: There are two types of legislation. A bill is a direct call to action from the Senate to the administration. There is a clear result of action on behalf of the administration. Bills do not require SGA funds.
- B. Projects: A project is a change made to campus, initiated by SGA and may (or may not) call for SGA funding. A project follows similar procedures as a bill, (as they both require a synopsis, first reading, administrative review, and majority approval from the senate). Projects, however, do not address issues related to Lipscomb policy.

Section 2. Requirements

- A. Representatives
 - a. Any article of legislation requires two members of the Senate to serve as representatives for the legislation.
 - b. Legislation may be presented to the Senate by any member of the Student Government Association, except for the Vice President.
- B. Timeline
 - a. Legislation must be completed and submitted in accordance with the timeline determined by the SGA Executives.

Section 3. Process

- A. The Vice President shall preside over the Senate's legislative powers and must maintain fairness, and professional moderation of discussion throughout the legislative process.
- B. The Vice President has the power to facilitate debate following any presentation of the legislation before the Senate.

Section 4. Process Steps

- A. First Reading: Each piece of legislation shall be presented before the senate on two separate occasions. During the first reading, a synopsis of the legislation will be presented. The senate may ask inquisitorial questions concerning the rationale behind the legislation, the research conducted, and any involvement of departments or students in its development. Senators may also offer recommendations to the group responsible for drafting the legislation.
- B. Administrative Review: Subsequent to the first reading, students involved in drafting the legislation shall meet with the Vice President of Student Life for an "Administrative Review." This meeting will allow for the presentation of the legislative synopsis and a discussion of its feasibility. The primary purpose of this review is to receive guidance and gain insight into the Administration's perspective before proceeding with finalizing the legislation.
- C. Second Reading (Bill) or Project Pitch: During the second reading, the legislation shall be presented to the Senate in its finalized form, which may include revisions. Senators are not obligated to adopt the recommendations proposed during the first reading or the administrative review. Upon the conclusion of the presentation, any senator may move to open the floor for discussion. During this period, senators will debate and express their support or concerns regarding the proposed legislation.

Voting

- a. Legislation shall be passed with a simple majority vote.
 - i. Bills approved by the Senate will be submitted to the SGA sponsor and subsequently forwarded to the Office of the President. No bills are binding until enforced by the administration. The passage of a Bill serves as strong, sophisticated, and professional suggestions to the administration regarding the needs and wants of students.
 - ii. Projects passed by the senate will begin the process of implementation. Representatives of the project will contact respective departments and initiate the project plan.
- b. Senators, including those serving as representatives of the legislation may vote on all legislation. Two-thirds (2/3) of eligible voters must be present for a vote to be conducted.

Section 5. Emergency Passage

- A. In circumstances where the representatives of a piece of legislation, in conjunction with the Senate, determine that the legislation requires immediate passage, a senator may move to proceed directly to the voting process following the first reading. This motion for emergency passage must be seconded, after which the Senate shall vote on whether to adopt the motion.

- B. For the legislation to be passed on an emergency basis, the motion must receive a supermajority vote. If the motion is approved, the Senate will immediately proceed to the voting process for the legislation in question.

ARTICLE 6. FINANCES

Section 1. Funding Student Organizations/Budgets

- A. Any student from an officially recognized campus organization, club, or department may present a funding proposal before the Finance Committee or Senate.
 - a. Student orgs must meet the standards required by the Office of Student Life to be eligible for this funding.
 - b. Groups must follow the instructions set forth by the Executive Officers to schedule a time to propose to the Finance Committee.
- B. After presenting the funding proposal to the Finance Committee, Senators in the Finance Committee may ask the requesting group inquisitorial questions.
- C. Then, the proposal will be presented by the Finance Committee to Senate.
 - a. The Vice President will moderate discussion appropriately, and has the power to strike any inappropriate question as he or she sees fit.
 - b. Senators may offer amendments to the requested amount, and the Senate may vote on those amendments as discussion progresses.
- D. Senate will vote to approve funding proposals given by the Finance Committee or student organizations.
- E. A simple majority vote must be received for the funding proposal to be accepted and passed by the senate.
- F. Two-thirds (2/3) of the Senate must be present to hold a vote on monetary proposals from the Finance Committee or a student organization.
- G. Any money not used by the requesters will be returned to the Senate's funding proposal budget. Requesters may not go over the senatorial allotted budget.

Section 2. Funding Proposals of Social Clubs, Departments, and other Special Requests

- A. Any student from an officially recognized campus organization, club, or department may present a funding proposal before the Senate.
 - a. Student orgs must meet the standards required by the Office of Student Life to be eligible for this funding.
 - b. Groups must follow the instructions set forth by the Executive Officers to schedule a time to propose to the Senate.
 - c. Student Orgs can request additional funds during the semester if:

- i. Remaining budget < Estimated event expenses
 - ii. Event not originally budgeted
 - iii. Unanticipated organization growth
- d. Two-thirds of the senate must participate in voting for the approval of these proposals.

Section 3. Funding Rollover

- A. Student Organizations who receive funding at the beginning of the fall semester may “roll over,” (use) a maximum of $100 in the spring semester. Excess funds will be returned to the SGA budget. There is no spring to fall rollover.
- B. Departments, partnerships, and social clubs’ funding will reset at the end of the semester. There is no rollover.

ARTICLE 7. COMMITTEES

- A. To facilitate the interests of the SGA and the student body, the SGA may create non-standing committees dedicated to specific areas of student interest. Both the Senate (by majority vote) and the President (by executive action) shall have the power to create or dissolve these non-standing committees as they deem necessary.
 - a. Examples of these committees may include, but are not limited to: Formal Committee, Service Committee
- B. No committee chairperson shall ever abuse his/her authority by disregarding an idea brought before his/her group.

ARTICLE 8. DISCIPLINE AND VACANCIES

Section 1. Misconduct

- A. Any Executive Officer, Senator, or Representative who, whether in word or deed, impugns the reputation, impairs the efficacy, or otherwise inhibits the SGA will be subject to impeachment. This includes, but is not limited to, dereliction of one’s SGA duties, failure to adhere to Lipscomb’s standards of behavior & conduct, and other behavior that rises to such a level, as determined by the SGA sponsor.

Section 2. Absences

- A. SGA Senators are permitted two approved absences per semester.
 - a. Approved absences are absences in which the senator communicates the absence with the executives promptly before the absence.
 - b. Unapproved absences are absences which fail to be communicated with the executive team, or any absence exceeding the permitted amount (two).

- B. If two unapproved absences occur, the Senator, or Executive Officer in question will be terminated from office. The Executive Officers must utilize fair and sustainable methods of excusing absences.
- C. Under extenuating circumstances, additional absences may be permitted if approved by the Executive Officers and the SGA Sponsor.

Section 3. Vacancy

- A. When a Senator vacancy occurs during the academic year (which for this purpose includes Class Executive Officers), the Executive Officers will consider nominations from the Senate and any interested parties. The Executive Officers shall then appoint a replacement senator to complete that term in office, either from the nominations or otherwise at their discretion. The person selected by the Executive Officers must be approved by a majority of the Senate.
- B. When a Senator vacancy occurs during the summer, individuals seeking to fill the office will participate in the fall campaign process as outlined by the executive officers.
- C. In the event of an Executive vacancy, the Executive Officers should seek counsel and nominations from other Senators. The Executive Officers shall then appoint an Executive Officer from the existing Senators to complete the vacated term. The Senator selected must be approved by a majority of the Senate.
- D. Upon the successful confirmation of a Senator to an Executive position, the Executive Officers shall then nominate another student to fulfill the remainder of the term of the vacated Senate position in accordance with this section.

ARTICLE 9. AMENDMENTS

This Constitution may be amended by the following procedure:

- A. During the summer, executive officers may make any necessary amendments before the academic year begins.
 - a. All amendments made in this way must be agreed upon by all Executive members and the SGA Sponsor.
- B. During a given academic year, any Senator or Executive Officer may present an amendment before the Senate.
 - a. To pass, the amendment must receive a majority vote by the Senate.
 - b. If the Executive Officers approve the amendment, the amendment will be adopted & made part of the SGA Constitution.
 - c. If the Executive Officers fail to approve the Amendment Proposal, it passes back to the Senate.

- d. The Senate may overrule the decision of the Executive Officers by a three-quarter majority vote, after which the Amendment Proposal will be adopted & made part of the SGA Constitution.
