❖ Art usage in general.

- Anyone is allowed to use my FANART and MEMES as icons I don't really mind as long as you give credit~
- Commissions or personal art of my persona and OC's SHOULD NOT BE USED BY ANYONE

The only exception in using art of my persona is if you're going to make a meme and you need an image of me..
~~Which I doubt would ever happen but~~ if you do please show me nonetheless.

So what can I do with your fanart/memes?

❖ Reposting

If you are on the same social media where I can be found, PLEASE SHARE THE ORIGINAL POST IF YOU KNOW I HAVE UPLOADED IT THERE. It's easier than uploading it again- SO SHARE IT, RETWEET IT! IT'S ONLY ONE CLICK OF A BUTTON. It isn't hard.

Can I repost your art?

- Yes, but I have rules!
- You can repost with proper credit. This includes: Fanart, memes and/or references. BUT you have to ask me for permission before reposting and please tell me where you're reposting it. My DM's are always open~
- You can not repost personal art of my OC's or my persona. Comics of my OC's/Persona can be a possible exception depending on what is depicted. (Just shoot me a DM about it.)

❖ REPOSTING PROPERLY!!!	❖ Claiming as your own drawing ❖ Mislabeling the image, for example if I draw an image of a girl, don't call that hentai or ecchi when there isn't a trace of it, I will come strangle you. ❖ Not crediting properly if you repost ❖ DO NOT REPOST MY PERSONAL ART
-------------------------	---

❖ How to Credit Properly

- Please include my name in your bio/description if you are using my fanart as an icon or cover photo.
- Commissioners who post art that are for them is fine~ Saying "I commissioned Pocchan!" is good enough.
- Please ask me directly first if you want to repost and provide my name and a link to the original. You always gotta include the sauce with the food~

Example:

ok!

❖ Commissioner Use

- Commissions should only be for the commissioner only.
- If you are not the commissioner, please do not use or repost the commissioned image at all, I will not hesitate to make my watermark even bigger in the future if this happens.
- This also applies to gift art for my friends/mutuals
- If you commission a drawing as a gift for someone, that's okay. They have to know this too.

- Using for animation of some sort, chourses, Live 2D, Intros, Outros etc. it's okay
- It's also fine commissioning an animator to use/animate my art for personal use.) I do not draw for commercial usage at this point.

What is the commissioner allowed to do?

The only exception is for PERSONAL USE. If you want to put it on a shirt, make a sticker, print it out or something, you can as long as it's for yourself. I DO NOT ALLOW COMMERCIAL USE.

❖ Need Art by a Certain Date?

- If you need art by a certain date, please notify me about a month or more in advance so I have time! More than a month is a safe bet! The earlier the better- it's best to plan early! I usually take about 2 weeks to 2 months on a piece depending on the type of commission.

❖ Do you send WIPs?

- Yes! I mainly send:
 - The rough, planned sketch (sometimes skipped if it already looks like a clean sketch)
 - A cleaner/clean sketch
 - Lineart (this is skipped if you get the sketch commissions)
 - And sometimes partially colored WIP's of my progress
- I usually send a WIP myself even if you don't ask for them. You can still ask if you'd like to see how progress is. The reason why I send WIP's myself is to ask if everything is okay before I start the next step or if I have a question about a certain part of the drawing.
- Please keep an eye out for times I may postpone working on commissions, I usually make post/tweet for setting aside a couple days to focus on studying or I might be going on vacation with family. (It could be about quizzes/ tests/ exams/ camping/ traveling etc.) During that time I will not work on commissions. This is so you have the knowledge that there has been no progress at the time.

❖ What can I Draw?

- There are things I am unable to draw and there are things I'm uncomfortable with. This list may grow when I find out that I can or can't draw something. I also have the right to decline a commission.

I will apologize and refund you (if you paid) if that happens.

- If it's something I can't draw or I'm not comfy with it I'll decline.
- A time period where I might be really busy or so stressed out that I can't concentrate on art at all is another example. This could happen if I took the commission but have to refund because I might be taking too long, or if you become impatient to the point you no longer want the drawing. (If you're patient and willing enough to wait for me to get better because you really want a drawing from me then thank you in advance.)

POSSIBLE EXCEPTIONS

- ❖ Furies/Scalies/Featheries(?) (whatever humanoid animal exists lol) - I'm not used to drawing furies but I want to practice so I can put this into the "Acceptable" category one day! If you really really want me to try drawing your floofy character then we can negotiate. It can be practice for me.

❖ Payment Method

- I accept payment via Paypal only!
- Partial payments are okay, you must ask me about it first.
Example: Paying half before the sketch and the other half, after the sketch.
- I start sketching after I get paid!
- Please provide your paypal email if you prefer I send an invoice.
- I also offer the paypal.me option. Some people prefer paypal.me it since it's easier- please let me know and I'll send my paypal.me link.

❖ Adopts

- Do not steal my art/claim the art as your own (the character is yours, yes- but you did not draw these pieces of art!)
- Reselling is okay, it MUST be sold for the same price you bought it for or lower. It CANNOT be higher than the price you bought it for. The only exception for this is if you have paid for/commissioned EXTRA ART for it.
- You can give the adopt a name, personality, use for RP, etc.
- You can make minor changes as long as you do not completely change the adoptable.
- Only the purchaser can use the image(s) bought, reposting, slight edits, etc, is acceptable.

❖ Vroid Models

- ❖ These can be used for streaming as a Vtuber model or I can convert them for MMD usage.
- ❖ I am not sure of commercial usage (for example making merch of images of the actual model) yet- please consult me first about it.
- ❖ When crediting the model please write “3D: Pocchan” or “Model: Pocchan” please do not credit as “mama”.
