Birthday Flowers Available

Watkins Flowers of Distinction offers a broad birthday collection featuring classic arrangements, modern floral styles, premium designs, and meaningful personalized gifts.

Birthday Roses

Roses remain one of the most popular birthday flowers because they are available in many colours and design styles. Red roses may suit romantic celebrations, while yellow, pink, white, peach, lavender, or mixed roses can create cheerful and elegant birthday presentations.

A rose-focused Birthday Flower arrangement can be created in a simple vase or an upgraded keepsake container. Customers may also request complementary flowers, greenery, or available gift add-ons.

Birthday Lilies

Lilies provide a graceful and polished look for birthday arrangements. They can be arranged on their own or paired with roses, hydrangeas, greenery, and seasonal accent flowers.

Orchids

Orchids are a refined option for customers seeking luxury birthday flowers. They may be featured in cut-flower arrangements or offered as potted plants, depending on current inventory.

Sunflowers

Sunflowers bring warmth and bright colour to birthday celebrations. Their cheerful appearance makes them suitable for family birthdays, friends, summer celebrations, and casual surprise deliveries.

Mixed Bouquets

Mixed bouquets combine multiple flower varieties, textures, colours, and greenery. They are a versatile choice for recipients of different ages and can be designed in classic, contemporary, rustic, or vibrant styles.

Designer Arrangements

Designer arrangements allow the florist to use the freshest available flowers while creating a one-of-a-kind composition. These bouquets are ideal for customers who appreciate creative freedom and professional floral artistry.

Timeless Elegance

A Timeless Elegance arrangement may feature roses, lilies, refined greenery, and a balanced colour palette. This style works well for milestone birthdays, romantic celebrations, corporate gifts, and recipients who prefer a polished presentation.

Blushing Blooms

A Blushing Blooms arrangement may include soft pink, peach, cream, or lavender flowers designed to create a warm and graceful appearance. This style can be suitable for family members, friends, partners, and elegant birthday gatherings.

Seasonal Flowers

Seasonal flowers allow the floral team to use blooms that are fresh and naturally available throughout the year. Exact flower varieties may change based on supply, but substitutions should maintain the intended colour palette, style, and value.

Birth Flowers and Birth Month Flowers

Birth Flowers and Birth Month Flowers can add personal meaning to birthday arrangements. Each month is traditionally associated with one or more flower varieties, making them a thoughtful starting point for a customized bouquet.

For example, carnations are commonly associated with January, daffodils with March, roses with June, gladiolus with August, and chrysanthemums with November. Availability varies, so the florist may recommend similar colours or seasonal substitutes when the traditional flower is not in stock.

Floral Gift Baskets

Floral gift baskets can combine fresh flowers with gourmet treats, chocolates, fruit, snacks, or other available items. These gifts are well suited to milestone birthdays, office celebrations, family gatherings, and larger presentations.

Plants for Birthdays

Plants can provide a lasting alternative to cut flowers. Available options may include orchids, green plants, flowering plants, and dish gardens.

Premium Floral Arrangements

Premium floral arrangements may include larger stem counts, specialty flowers, upgraded containers, and more detailed design work. These arrangements are especially suitable for milestone birthdays, luxury gifting, and important family or corporate celebrations.

Can Birthday Arrangements Be Customized?

Yes. Customers can request preferred colours, specific flowers, bouquet sizes, vase styles, or available gift additions. Custom designs can also incorporate the recipient's favourite flowers, birth month, personality, or celebration theme.

Specialty requests should be placed early because certain flowers may require advance sourcing. The flower shop may suggest comparable substitutions when a requested bloom is unavailable.

Can Flowers Be Sent With Chocolates or Balloons?

Yes, selected birthday arrangements may be paired with chocolates, balloons, candles, plush gifts, plants, greeting cards, or floral gift baskets. Available additions vary depending on inventory and the selected product.

Gift add-ons can make a birthday delivery feel more personal and may be particularly helpful for family celebrations, children’s birthdays, milestone occasions, and workplace recognition.
