

NAME: ARAN LIM

DISCIPLINE: NURSING

Past/current experiences working in the field of disabilities:

I am the family member of someone with neurodevelopmental differences. As a high school student, I volunteered at a camp for children and adults with special healthcare needs. I currently work as a nurse practitioner in Developmental and Behavioral Pediatrics.

Goals for your LEND training experience:

I am excited to learn more about policy making/advocacy and interdisciplinary teamwork.

What you wish to contribute, in the future, as an advocate/professional/family member in the field:

I hope to be the best advocate I can for the patients I get to care for.
