

As firearms season approaches, hunters aim to keep deer population down November 17, 2023 Maryland

Yahoo

... Approximately 125,000 people, or 2% of Maryland's population, have a license to hunt in the state, a Maryland Department of Natural Resources spokesperson said earlier this year...

Maryland Department of Natural Resources Announces Revised Hunting License Price Structure June 22, 2023 Maryland Department of Natural Resources News

... Under the new legislation, the price of a resident regular hunting license will increase from $24.50 to $35 while the cost of a non-resident hunting license will increase from $130 to $160... The 2023 legislation also created a new hunting stamp that will be required in order to hunt sika deer. The resident sika deer stamp will cost $10 while the non-resident version will cost $25...

'Deer Summit' sets stage to inform Senate May 22, 2023 Maryland, Southern Maryland Newspapers

... Brian Eyler, from the Department of Natural Resources ... said that despite popular belief, their data indicates a stable deer population...The fee for licenses hunters need also goes back into the economy... That's $400 million to the state ...

Maryland's Muzzleloader Deer Season Opens with New Regulations October 7, 2023 The Southern Maryland Chronicle

... An important antler-point restriction remains in effect. Deer hunters may harvest one antlered white-tailed deer within the yearly bag limit that does not meet the requirement of having at least three points on one antler. Any additional antlered deer taken within the established bag limit must meet the minimum point restriction ...

Archery Deer Hunting Season Opens September 8th Across Maryland September 5, 2023 Southern Maryland News Net

... An antler-point restriction remains in effect. Deer hunters may harvest one antlered white-tailed deer within the yearly bag limit that does not meet the requirement of having at least three points on one antler...

Maryland Weighs Options for Controlling Deer Damage to Crops May 15, 2023

Lancaster Farming

... Though some people fear Maryland is being overrun by deer, that's not the case. The state's deer population is stable, but some areas have too many of the animals, said Brian Eyler, associate director of wildlife and heritage services at the Department of Natural Resources... Under 1,900 crop damage permits issued last year, almost 10,000 deer were killed..,