

I Just Want To Be A Paperback Writer Pitch

Author: James "Dragon Master" Courneya

Genres: Romcom.

Page Count: 30

Synopsis:

The main character would give anything to be a paperback writer. Unfortunately, it seems all his artistic skill went only into drawing. One day he is put onto the same project as a hot-headed woman and is told she is the writer for his next project. The two immediately start off on bad terms. However, soon he finds that she is in the same position as himself. Wanting to be an illustrator, but having no drawing capability. Realizing they share a common goal; they decide to work together to overcome their short comings.