

Rhetoric Literature
The Screwtape Letters* by C. S. Lewis

Research: Do some research on C. S. Lewis. Write 10 significant things that you learn about his life. (Bullet point – one sentence per) There are several movies about C. S. Lewis: Shadowlands and The Most Reluctant Convert. There are also multiple biographic videos on YouTube. You may want to watch these.

Research this book: When was it published? What do you think motivated Lewis to write this book at this time?

Read and/or Listen: The Screwtape Letters. There are several great dramatizations on Spotify for free. I would encourage you to read along as you listen. Make notes as you go and write your journal entry for each section as you go.

Preface: What are the two errors people can make concerning devils?

Letters: Identify the following –
Screwtape
Wormwood
Enemy
Our Father Below
The Patient

Letters: Choose 5 letters (one from each of the following sections) that seem most meaningful to you during this season of life. Journal your reflections as you read that particular letter. How do you see this letter ring true in the general culture? How do you see it relate to your personal life? Each journal entry should be a paragraph.

I-VI
VII – XII
XIII – XVIII
XIX – XIV
XV - XXXI
