

One-Liner

One of the most impactful ways to change the world is by providing a community to orphaned children. The problem is, people don't know where to begin. Through our donation programs, we've created a simple way to give financially so orphaned children in Ethiopia can have a hope for the future.

Narrative

Providing a hopeful future for undervalued children, specifically in another country, can be daunting. You spend hours trying to find the right organization, only to walk away empty handed and frustrated because there are so many options. Like you, we know that everyone has the right to a hopeful future and we are committed to seeing this happen in the lives of orphaned children. That's why we've spent 5 years providing care for 56 kids in the small town of Sodo, Ethiopia.

Here's how you can be involved:
