

BW: Hello everyone we are back at the FCW Arena for this edition of FCW CHARGE! I am your play by play man Brian Woods and joining me is—

SR: THE HOSTESS WITH THE MOSTESS SARA REECE!!! And Battleground was so good, let's move forward to New Orleans Nightmare!

El Serpentico V. Dexter Kidd

The match begins as high octane as you would think as two of FCW's brightest dish out punishment. El Serpentico is in control here in this opening contest early on as it's all him. He whips the Shot In The Dark Briefcase Holder into the ropes and hits a headscissors takedown for two. Serpentico quickly applies a chin lock in the hopes he taps but Dexter isn't going anywhere. Instead Dexter is quick to fight out and hits a hurricanrana that sends Serpentico to the outside. He backs up and dives over the top rope and hits a splash that sends Serpentico up the ramp way! The crowd in The FCW Arena are loving this match as Kidd celebrates. He throws his former tag partner back inside the int and gets a two count. The fans are very evenly split for this one right now. They battle back and forth until Serpentico whips Dexter Kidd into the corner and takes a running start, hitting a knee to the face. Kidd slides down as Serpentico runs and attempts a cannonball, but Kidd picks him up and transitions him into a powerbomb! But Serpentico lands on the top rope and hits a stunner from the top rope! The fans are losing their minds with a "This is Awesome!" Chant! Serpentico is feeling it and goes to the top rope, but wait! It's Mason Tucker! What the Hell is he doing?!?! He pushes Serpentico off the top and is beating him down! The ref throws it out as Kids gets met with a big boot for his troubles!
Winner: El Serpentico (By DQ)

BW: Unbelievable! Mason Tucker just ran interference!
SR: He STILL has a chip on shoulder!

The Champ is Back

FCW FIGHT! Champion Ryan Holloway comes out to much of the crowds dismay. He smirks and takes off his sunglasses before he speaks. He says that he's so sick and tired of being the top guy around here. That there's no one left for him to defeat. So he decides to offer an open invitational to anyone in FCW for New Orleans Nightmare. After a few moments…

STACY JADE?!?!

She comes out with her Great Lakes Championship and the crowd is going nuclear! She says that she doesn't want to waste his time and certainly wouldn't waste hers. She says that Holloway has given her some motivation to do the exact same thing, albeit for different reasons. Because she wants to see who can step up. So after a moment of waiting, we hear Seth

Sevens theme! He's stepping up but he's not alone! Its Miles Grant as well! They're both in the FCW Arena to step up! The Champ agrees to a Triple Threat Ladder Match at New Orleans Nightmare!

Meanwhile for the women we see Bunny Doll and Xia Harper come out! They both won at Battleground and now want to claim their place in line. Stacy agrees and makes the match a Triple Threat Street Fight for the FCW Great Lakes Championship! marina Flores comes out and signs off on both matches!

Xia Harper V. Keisha Darling

The match begins as Keisha tries to out speed Xia Harper. She tries staying on top of her and lands a couple punches, but the MMA specialist isn't going to let her take advantage to quickly as she powers her off and backs her into the corner. The referee has to put distance between them and they both back off. There's a bit of mutual respect right now but that quickly goes out the window. They go face to face but Keisha slaps Xia square in the face! Xia takes exception and slaps her back. The two are exchanging slaps for a second until Keisha hits a superkick. She runs to the ropes and hits a spiral leg drop. Xia is in a bad spot right here and maybe Keisha is proving why she should've been added to the match! But Xia isn't going down that easily. She quickly gets to her feet and she spears Xia to the outside! The action spills out as we see Stacy and Bunny watching from separate monitors in the back. Xia rolls Keisha in the ring for a two count. Keisha attempts a comeback but is ultimately short when Xia locks on The Rings of Saturn for the win!

Winner: Xia Harper

SR: FCW Academy's newest recruit has been looking good lately!
BW: But can she deliver when the lights are bright?

Marleina Riley V. Shauna Danger

The match begins and both competitors take their time to set up anything. Shauna is first though with a snapmare as she transitions into a good headlock. Right away Marleina is having a hard time trying to bounce out but does. She hits a spinning wheel kick and down goes Danger! Marliena is showing off her athletic ability early on and the crowd is loving it! Shauna gets up and Marliena goes for a standing dropkick but Shauna catches her and slams her down on the mat! She hits a running knee as the crowd begins a "Let's go Riley!" Chant that Shauna waves off. Instead she applies a Boston Crab and the crowd boos her for slowing the match down. She doesn't care and only holds it longer. Marleina inches closer to the ropes, finally breaking the hold. The refs count gets to 4 before she finally breaks it off. She picks her up and sets up for a Piledriver, but Riley reverses it and hits a buckle bomb! Suddenly Marliena has a second wind and rams into the turnbuckle, repeatedly driving her shoulder into her! The former cheerleader is now the one dishing out damage as she sets up for The Tiger Suplex but Shauna rolls off. She grabs a chair from the outside, feeling frustrated and starts swinging away! The ref has no choice but to throw the match out!

Winner: Marleina Riley (By DQ)

SR: THIS IS MADNESS!!! SOMEONE NEEDS TO STOP HER!
BW: But the question is who will?

Looks like the question is answered when JESSICA CARTER comes out! The fans are yelling holy shit as she takes the chair and swings away at Shauna! One hit connects before Shauna rolls out of the ring! A “Welcome Back!” Chant breaks out as she checks on Riley while the show fades out!
