

Privacy Policy for Follow the Bee

Effective date: July 29, 2026

Follow the Bee respects your privacy.

The extension:

- Does not collect personal information.
- Does not track browsing activity.
- Does not access website content or browsing history.
- Does not use analytics, advertising, cookies, or external servers.
- Does not sell, share, or transfer user data.

The preferred movement speed is stored locally on the user's device. This setting is used only to preserve the exercise configuration between sessions and is never transmitted elsewhere.

All exercises operate entirely within the browser.
