1. Discussion: A room in the Gender Equity Center is going to be used for a clothing closet for BSU students. This closet has been approved.

B. Melanie

1. Discussion: Melanie would like to talk to a BSU Government Relations representative to talk about voting rights for BSU students and the removal of gender identity/sexual orientation from employee forms. Melanie attended the first Town Hall produced by ASBSU. Melanie wants to research into whether there are bigger rooms to hold the final meeting in for ASBSU delegates. The current plan is to have the meeting in a room with maximum room for around 10 people.
