Provincial Parks Campgrounds

About BC Parks (From the Provincial Park Website) Visiting Parks – Things to Do and See British Columbia's incredible system of provincial parks offers experiences as unforgettable and diverse as the province's natural landscape. Explore sandy beaches and majestic forests; investigate mysterious caves or paddle down peaceful rivers – an adventure awaits every visitor. BC Parks offers campsites, day-use areas, and thousands of kilometres of trails as a fun, convenient, low-cost way to explore the province; so put a little more BC Parks in your life! BC Parks is responsible for the designation, management and conservation of a system of ecological reserves, provincial parks and recreation areas located throughout the province. British Columbia's parks and protected areas contain nationally and internationally significant natural and cultural features and outdoor experiences.
