pages). Research Findings is the explanation about the result of the research based on analysis of the data whether it is in qualitative or quantitative approaches.

The First Sub Topic (Finding 1)

The author(s) should make sub-topic by bold type and capitalizing each words. The findings is the description of the result, and it can be completed with chart(s), graphic(s), diagram(s), or table(s). The example of chart/figure and the name can be seen below:

The table must be written such example below:

Table 1. The Comparative of Experimental and Control Group

Pre-Test	Post-Test	Group
68	75	Experimental
72	75	Control

The name of the table must be above the table, the column is not given the lines on the middle, left, and right sides; the content of the table should be in the middle. If the table is more than one page, the author(s) must write the head in the next page of the table.
