Info: please do not hate on anyone or judge anyone in this document if you find something annoying from a screenshot or think "you should of known" bla bla bla we will ignore it keep in mind most of us were naive at the time yes looking back at it now it was clear but like I said try putting yourself in our point of view

ZASHAA is a awful person she manipulates people, admitted to causing a boy to kill himself admitted to enjoying BEATING people yes beating , she POSSIBLY fakes her family and lied to a minor that one of her family members almost killed themselves bc said minor helped me back then (minor is now 19 considering this is posted after their birthday) she also lies about people to make people feel like shit or sometimes become enemies!

This will list each individual's experience down. You'll see who is who due to introductions.
