

STEM & Civics CLW Resources

The Afterschool Alliance CYESS and iCivics/CivxNow are collecting non-partisan, engaging resources on STEM and civic engagement to be shared during Civic Learning Week (March 9-13, 2026). Please add relevant resources and share with others in your network who might be interested in contributing.

Organization/Email	Resource/Description
Sphere Education Initiatives (Contact: Sarah Lane, slane@sphere-ed.org)	Civil Discourse in Science and Technology Sphere Ed • This is a collection that we are looking to continually grow. If looking to share one resource, this one could be a great one for CLW: Fostering Civil Discourse in STEM Classrooms: Tips and Tricks Sphere Ed • We also have some recorded webinars, like- Teaching in the Age of AI: Policy Insights and Classroom Applications for Civil Discourse Sphere Ed • If you use something from Sphere and tag our accounts, we'll be sure to amplify it!
Roper Center for Public Opinion Research (Contact: Brett Powell, bmp6@cornell.edu) https://ropercenter.cornell.edu/	To support graduate, undergraduate, and high school level educators, the Roper Center offers lesson plans and curriculum aligned with AP course requirements, as well as public tools https://ropercenter.cornell.edu/learnteach/classroom-materials-educators
Education Development Center (Contact: Wendy Rivenburgh, wrvivenburgh@edc.org)	SRVCE Civics Curriculum SRVCE blends civic inquiry , media literacy education, career skills development (with special attention to STEM skills), and exploration of public service careers to prepare students to be active citizens and thrive in the workforce. All SRVCE materials are free.
Association of Science and Technology Centers (Contact: Jenny Crayne, jcrayne@astc.org)	Civic Engagement and Policymaking Toolkit (CEPT) Designed for science engagement organizations to build foundational knowledge, tools, and skills for collaborative engagement. Through a community science approach, identify and implement ways to nurture civic experiences across one's work or deepen ongoing civic initiatives within communities.
Mikva Challenge (Contact: Jill Bass, jill@mikvachallenge.org)	American 250 lessons The story of the United States is a story of civic action. When American colonists challenged the authority of King George III, they did more than voice their

[illegible]