He has lots of amazing art pieces.

Things not included in the sale

- My social media accounts and handle. You do not have to change the character name from Ransom that's fine but you can not use WildRansom as a handle. I go by Ransom still as a human so I will maintain my wildRansom handles for online.
- You can't just assume my identity. You have to make it clear you are now a new owner when you first take ownership of him. You can not claim you created him or use him to make mass merchandise. You can get art of him and custom things of course that's fine!

Things to keep in mind

- He is an older and used suit so there is some wear and tear. You would be buying him as is knowing this. He still has plenty of life left in him if treated with care but he is not a brand new suit.
- I have dogs and have been around cats so please do not consider buying if you have extreme pet allergies!
- He is one of kind and from a maker who doesn't make suits very often so if you've wanted a Multicolorbark/AutumnFallings suit here is a rare chance for you.
- I am short 5'2 so he would fit best someone shorter or a couple inches taller. He would fit best someone under 175lbs I think that would be the max he would fit okay
- You must be an adult to consider making an offer to buy him. Also I'm looking for at least 10k ideally for everything. Also would accept wire transfer/zelle for payment. I would prefer buyer also pay shipping costs. Pick up could be an option if you're local to MN or going to Furry Migration.

- You can DM me on bluesky or email me at radpandog@gmail.com if you're seriously interested.
- I'll keep adding more info here as I think of it! Last updated 8/14/25
- Images taken 8/12/2025
- Closing Offers 8/15/2025 Highest offer: 13k
