 - Thursday 3/27 at 5:00 PM
 - 112 Gregory Hall, 810 S Wright St. Champaign
- Tuesday 4/1 at 12:00 noon: Book Talk: Transnational Palestine with Nadim Bawalsa
 - Dr. Nadim Bawalsa is a historian of modern Palestine. He holds a PhD in History and Middle Eastern & Islamic Studies from New York University.
 - Tens of thousands of Palestinians migrated to the Americas in the final decades of the nineteenth century and early decades of the twentieth. By 1936, an estimated 40,000 Palestinians lived outside geographic Palestine. Transnational Palestine is the first book to explore the history of Palestinian immigration to Latin America, the struggles Palestinian migrants faced to secure Palestinian citizenship in the interwar period, and the ways in which these challenges contributed to the formation of a Palestinian diaspora and to the emergence of Palestinian national consciousness.
 - Tuesday 4/1 at 12 noon
 - Virtual, register here: Webinar Registration - Zoom
- Friday 5/2 at 9:00 AM: Palestine in the World Roundtable with Michelle Campos and Charles Anderson
