

The Lapointe Foundation is proud to announce the first annual Entrepreneur Scholarship in honor of the brilliant entrepreneur Charlie Parlee. Charlie was compelled to leave school in the 5th grade to help support his family, after his father died during the Depression. With college out of the equation, Charlie decided to begin his entrepreneurial journey. From Parlmont Plaza to Meeting House Road, Charlie had a vision most people strive for. Charlie was a staple in helping Chelmsford become the community it is today. As one of the founders of the Chelmsford Business Association, Charlie's legacy has lived on, and we are delighted that his contributions will be passed down to other inspiring entrepreneurs.
