[T.O.S.] Terms of Service

Important note: As you may notice, I have raised my prices, this due to new PayPal policies had implemented to my country that restraint the gains per commission, subtracting a good percentage at the moment of transferring to my bank account. This obviously it's important to explaining because I don't want to be misunderstood as an abuse from my part.

Thank you very much for your comprehension and support ♥

♦ Pricing/Quotes/Commissioning

- Base prices listed above are the minimum suggested price for a piece, and are subject to change at any time. Pieces with excessive detail or time required may result in a higher quote.
