Thank you!

We look forward to spending this valuable time with you during Freshman year. A retreat is a special time set apart for personal reflection and spiritual growth, away from school and the distractions of daily life. We have been praying for you and look forward to praying with you and spending time as a CRU family.

What to expect: A combination of large and small group activities, spiritual growth talks, social time, prayer, music, team building activities, and Mass.

Food: Meals are NOT provided. Each student must provide his/her own lunch and water bottle on the day of the retreat.

What to bring: A great attitude, packed lunch, clothing that meets out-of-uniform standards (dress in layers for various temperatures), a refillable water bottle with your name on it.

What not to bring: School work, electronics, valuables, anything that is not permitted at school is not permitted at retreat, including the usage of cell phones during the retreat. If phones are out, they will be kept by school staff until the retreat ends.

Rules & Expectations:

1. Designated areas (indoor and outdoor property) available to us will be indicated, all other locations are off limits. All students are to stay in designated areas, ready to participate at the designated time.
2. Food or drinks are in designated areas only
3. Over the counter medications are not to be shared by the students. Standard over the counter medications are available from SHDHS staff.
4. Respect, outstanding behavior, and polite manners is expected at all times regarding retreat staff, property, others' belongings, and all interactions. Pick up and clean up after yourself.
5. All school rules apply. A violation of any rule will result in consequences deemed appropriate by administration.
6. I understand that the school is NOT providing transportation.

I have read and agree to abide by the above rules and expectations:
