

SSG Glenn L. Travis

Location - East-A: R5, C12

A meeting by appointment of two brothers, Staff Sgt. Glenn Travis and Pvt. First Class Clyde Travis, somewhere in England, was disclosed in letters received by the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Travis, 520 Fourteenth street. A Sunday's get-together was enjoyed after a preceding arrangement had been made by the brothers. It was their first meeting in two years. A member of the signal corps, Sergeant Travis has been overseas about two years and has served in Africa. He entered the service in January of 1940. Private Travis, of a railway operating battalion, just recently arrived in England and has been in service since September of 1943. Both are graduates of Oshkosh High school and were employed in the signal department of the Chicago & Northwestern Railway Company before entering the service. Clyde's wife, Laura, and little daughter, Linda, reside at 542½ Eighth street.

Glenn L. Travis

Glenn L. Travis, age 85, passed away on Monday afternoon, January 12, 2004 at the Aurora Medical Center. He was born in Sheboygan, WI the son of Clayton and Theresa (Schmidt) Travis on March 16, 1918. He was employed at the Oshkosh Post Office for 34 years, retiring in March of 1982. Glenn served his country during World War II in the U.S. Army Signal Service from January 27, 1941 to September 18, 1945 in North Africa and the European area. He married Jane Barlow on October 5, 1946 in Dubuque, IA.

He is survived by his wife, Jane Travis of Oshkosh, a brother, Clyde (Laura) Travis of Oshkosh a sister Norma Grider of Billings, MT, and several nephews and nieces. He was preceded in death by his parents and a brother, Lorin.

Cremation will take place and there are no plans for visitation or services at this time. Inurnment will take place later at Ellenwood Cemetery.

Konrad.Behlman
Funeral Homes
231-1510

www.konrad-behlman.com

S/Sgt. Glenn L. Travis, 520 14th street, served with the 3159th signal service battalion. He entered service Jan. 27, 1941, and received his discharge Aug. 18 of this year. He engaged in the campaigns and battles of northern France, Ardennes, Rhineland and central Europe. He received the good conduct ribbon, American defense service ribbon, European-African-Middle Eastern service ribbon, eastern theater ribbon with four bronze battle stars, six overseas bars and one service stripe.

GLENN L. TRAVIS

SGT US ARMY

WORLD WAR II

MAR 16 1918

JAN 12 2001