⁹ Not present at Franklin

¹⁰ Brigade strength breakdowns are not practical for Cheatham's Corps; Bate's is the only division of Cheatham's Corps of which we have any actual casualty reports for Franklin. Bate reported 319 casualties at Franklin, plus a further 301 at Murfreesboro. Otherwise, no other reports exist on the division or brigade level regarding casualties; not even Cheatham himself provides tabulated losses for his corps in this battle.
