

TOU for ALL Adopts/Customs

By adopting {or getting a custom of} any character from us, you have automatically agreed to our Terms of Use as well there will be no refunds to what you buy in our shop {or any customs you order from our services}.

A reminder that if you buy with monetized/merchandise rights it is not considered copyright.

Whether it was a bought adopt, traded for adopt, or a freebie, the creator of the original design must always be credited back to us. While you can fully redesign them to your hearts content it's advised to keep the original design in their profile/folder, as well as us as the original creator for the original design that started it all. Please do not remove us from the credits of the original design.

If you get a custom/adopt for free, by trade, or by buying one from us, do not instantly gift/trade/sell it away before putting at least one {1} new artwork into them minimum. This does not include the artwork you were given from freebies, trades, or sales.

What NOT to do with our Adopts/Customs:

While it is normally assumed we do not control your new character, as it belongs to you now, we would still like you to follow these rules. As we do not want to be associated with these sorts of things:

- ★ Feeding it to AI
- ★ Turning them into NFTs
- ★ Minors drawing suggestive and sexual NSFW {gore is okay}
- ★ Drawing underaged-deemed designs in sexual/suggestive artwork
 - ★ Hateful content {MAGA, Racism, homo/transphobia, etc.}
 - ★ Messed up fetishes/kinks {Scat, Vore, Diapers, etc.}
 - ★ Incestuous content
 - ★ Pedophilic content
- ★ Detailed feet {Sorry, we're just highly uncomfortable with it}

Creator/Designer's Adopt TOS

Attempting to issue a fraudulent refund {a scam} after the adopt been bought will lead to losing all rights and we will resell them again. If caught continuing using the adopt, we will have to hire legal services with rights.

As we do not offer refunds on any of our products, we also do not offer any sort of “holding” or “claiming” adopts for a certain amount of time. Please have cash ready and only purchase from us when you can. This is first come first serve. Once brought you will have rights to the adopt as we do not take any authority on your character as long as you don't break our TOU.
