

South Carolina Fellowship of Language Teachers and Advocates AWARDS APPLICATIONS

SCFLTA World Language Teacher of the Year Award

The SCFLTA Language Teacher of the Year is intended to elevate the status and the public profile of the language profession at the state level and to allow the state winner to compete at the regional and national levels in the SCOLT and ACTFL competitions. First and foremost, the award recognizes best practices and excellence in the teaching and learning of world languages as well as leadership in the profession. Second, it is intended to increase the visibility and importance of language learning with the media, policymakers, and the general public. Candidates may self-nominate for this award.

SCFLTA Teacher of Promise Award

This award recognizes teachers in their first, second, or third year of teaching who show promise as an outstanding teacher and leader in world language education. Candidates may self-nominate for this award.

SCFLTA Professional Growth Scholarship Award

This award intends to encourage teachers' professional development by supporting their attendance and active participation in a regional or national conference or workshop of their choice. Candidates may self-nominate for this award.

SCFLTA Friend of World Languages Award

This award is granted to individuals, businesses, or corporations outside the education community who have demonstrated support of world language programs and initiatives in South Carolina. Nominees must have contributed to the cause of world language education beyond the scope of assigned job-related duties. Candidates may self-nominate for this award.

SCFLTA Lifetime Achievement Award

This award recognizes a member who has shown a sustained commitment to the profession of language education by serving world language educators through a lifetime of professional and/or academic endeavors.
