

Adult Educator Survey

What resources do you use?

The following list of free educational websites were the top resources mentioned in our survey to adult educators, active June 25 - July 13, 2018. The survey asked educators to share what free and open education resources they currently use with their students.

Source	Subjects	URL
ReadWorks	Reading	https://www.readworks.org/
EdReady	College Readiness, Reading and Math	https://edready.org/home
Math Antics	Math	https://www.mathantics.com/
Newsela	Reading, Current events	https://newsela.com/
HippoCampus	All subjects, OER library	https://www.hippocampus.org/
Khan Academy	Math, multiple subjects	https://www.khanacademy.org/
USA Learns	ESL	https://www.usalearns.org/
ck12	Math and Science	https://www.ck12.org/
GCFLearnFree	Multiple subjects	https://www.gcflearnfree.org/
Kuta Software	Math	https://www.kutasoftware.com/
ReadTheory	Reading	https://readtheory.org/
Purple Math	Math	http://www.purplemath.com/
YouTube	Multiple subjects	https://www.youtube.com/
Common Core Sheets	Reading and Math, Grammar	http://www.commoncoresheets.com/
Learnzillion	Math, multiple subjects	https://learnzillion.com/p/
Marshall Adult Ed	Reading	http://resources.marshalladulthoodeducation.org/reading_skills_home.htm
PhET	Math and Science	https://phet.colorado.edu/
TV411	Multiple subjects	http://www.tv411.org/
Typing.com	Typing	https://www.typing.com/

CrowdED Learning will be working to identify how these resources can best be incorporated into our proposed learning plan generation tool, SkillBlox. A number of these resources have also been added to our 11 subject-areas skill directories.

To stay up to date on SkillBlox and other CrowdED Learning initiatives, or to lend your expertise by helping us add to our library of quality, aligned, free and open education resources, please visit CrowdED Learning's website where you can join our mailing list, recommend a resource, or volunteer to help.