Scholarship

DockerCon is the hub for our community, bringing together members from all parts of our growing ecosystem and the globe. By actively promoting belonging, our goal is make DockerCon a safe place for all to learn, belong and collaborate.

The goal of the DockerCon Diversity Scholarship is to provide the opportunity for members of traditionally underrepresented groups in tech to attend DockerCon by lessening the barrier of financial strain. The scholarship includes a full access conference pass to DockerCon.

Apply Now!

Key Dates:

Monday, February 25 - Application Open

Wednesday, March 13 - Deadline to apply

Wednesday, March 20 - Scholarship recipients notified

Monday April 29 - Thursday, May 2 DockerCon 2019

Scholarship Inclusions:

   (1) Full pass to DockerCon 2019

*Please note, travel expenses are not covered under the scholarship and are the responsibility of the scholarship recipient. However, limited travel funds may become available and will be allocated to the selected recipients through an additional application process.