

Jeanine Niyonzima-Aroian

Jeanine is the founder of JNP Coffee, the founder of Burundi Friends International and a tireless advocate for improving the economic and social conditions for women coffee producers in Burundi. She is also Licensed Q. Grader and the Northeast Representative of the US SCA Chapter. She hosts these panel discussions every other month. You can contact her at jeanine@jnpcoffee.com and/or read more at www.jnpcoffee.com

Kathy Altamirano

Kathy Altamirano is going to be the moderator for the panel.

I'm Kathy, I work as a Regional Manager for Counter Culture Coffee in Dallas, TX. I started my coffee career in 2007 as a barista. I volunteer as a Head Judge for US CoffeeChamps and sensory judge World Coffee Events. In 2020, I was awarded Re:co Fellowship and Sprudge Twenty nomination. You can reach me at kaltamirano@counterculturecoffee.com

Adriana Vasquez Rodriguez

Adriana is the country manager for Bean Voyage in Costa Rica. Bean Voyage is a "feminist organization based in Costa Rica building an equitable value chain with smallholder womxn farmers". She coordinates and facilitates Care Training for small womxn coffee producers. She has an M.B.A. from the Universidad Latinoamerica de Ciencia and Tecnologia and B.A. in Economics from Universidad Nacional. Having worked in non-profit and social work for her entire professional career, Adriana has been an integral part of the team responsible for curriculum development. She consults Bean Voyage's producer groups regularly to inform the curriculum development and implementation.

Karla Boza Carbonell

Karla Boza Carbonell is a coffee producer at Finca San Antonio Amatepec in El Salvador, currently pursuing an M.S. Geography degree at Virginia Tech. Her research focuses on market accessibility for farmers and she uses research to merge her passions for coffee, feminism, and transparency in the coffee industry. Karla is a Board Member of the Denomination of Origin \(DO\) Bálamo Quezaltepec and a member of the El Salvador chapter for the International Women's Coffee Alliance (IWCA). In 2019, Karla was awarded the SCA's LEAD Scholarship. You can contact Karla at karlabozacarbonell@gmail.com

Dorienne Rowan-Campbell

I began my journey into the world of coffee production when I set out, in 1992, to rescue my father's small "hobby" farm from its ruin state. I now own the farm.

Coffee worked its magic ; I fell in love, got the farm producing and by 2002 obtained EC and an NOP organic certification. Rowan's Royale is now certified to EC, USA, Canadian and Japanese standards.

The farm sits at 4000' in the Blue Mountains of Jamaica. We use it as a training farm for organic production for small farmers locally and for women farmers around the Caribbean. We produce from seed to cup and we now sell both locally and globally through e-marketing on our website www.rowansroyale.com

In 2003 Rowan's Royale attended All Things Organic in Austin Texas and was nicknamed the Cadillac of Coffees....In 2004 we attended BioFach in Nuremberg. In 2008 we were invited to attend the IUCN Conference as one of 40 Women Environmental Entrepreneurs. In 2015 I was fortunate to attend SCAA Seattle supported by ITC and IWCA.

Sameeha M .AL-Mutawakel

Known as the "Queen of Mocha" Sameeha is the owner of Rover Bird Company and the current IWCA - Yemen president.

I was and still passionate about learning all about coffee , my passion led me to have and was known as "Queen of Mocha". I worked in the most value chain for Yemeni coffee since 2009 even now passed with many stages with coffee in Yemen . Worked with men and women farmers in many coffee growing areas . Finally we will start selling iwca-Yemen member's coffee in the USA through Rover Bird Company in a few coming days with some partners and still looking for more. Read more about Sameeha here.