All students are required to take the Spanish Placement Exam (SPE) before registering for their first Spanish course. The SPE determines the course at which students must begin Spanish. In this program, the minimum competency level for Spanish is Level 2 – Lower Intermediate Spanish. If students test below Level 2 Spanish, they will be required to do the lower course first. Therefore, students may be required to do up to two courses in Spanish. If students test above the Level 2 competency level, they will be exempted from the course.
