ANNEXURE A

HOUSE RULES

The following is a list of house rules which are intended to simply and sufficiently set out the rules which govern conduct within the confines of the property on which a portion is rented from the Lessor. Such rules form part of the lease agreement between yourselves and the Lessor, and breach of any of these rules will constitute breach of contract. These rules are in addition to and not a substitute for any obligations in terms of the lease agreement.

1. Excessive use of liquor, any use of drugs and indecent behavior (bad language, intimidation, violence, and disturbance) are not allowed, also not on the communal WhatsApp group.
2. Any criminal activity e.g. sabotaging, damage, theft etc. are not allowed. Lessor may give the Occupant 24 hour notice
3. The use of radios, TV's and other musical instruments are allowed, but may not be a disturbance to other residents or neighbours. Use earphones when necessary. No noise may disturb the neighbours or co-Occupants.
4. Activities shall be held in such a manner as not to disturb the neighbors. No parties allowed at the premise. Parties must be held at appropriate party venues and NOT at the house. Should it be necessary for the Lessor to visit the premise due to complaints of the neighbors' and the complaint seems to be substantiated, the call out will carry a cost of R350.
5. No smoking inside enclosed areas, including but not limited to buildings and covered patios. Close doors and windows if smoking is done outside. Use the containers provided for cigarette stubs. Do not litter.
6. The premises may not be used for any commercial activity, but are for residential use only.
7. Holes in the wall must be filled when evacuating at the cost of the tenant and marks on the walls must be repainted. This will be handled under the cleaning deposit where possible. The use of Prestik is not advisable – it takes chunks out of the plaster.
8. The Occupant may not be in possession of a firearm nor store a firearm on the property unless provision is made for a safe which corresponds with legal requirements by the tenant/occupant, and written permission is obtained from the Lessor and a copy of the weapon license must be given to the Lessor prior.
9. Please note that the house recycles (paper, glass, plastic, tin, polystyrene etc). It eases the load when municipal strikes are active. Should the house not adhere to this, the cost of recycling will be invoiced to the Occupants equally.
10. The communal areas must be kept clean and tidy. No storing of private property in communal areas.
11. No stacking of dirty dishes allowed – it's unhygienic. On weekends there is no cleaner, so if you have used it, wash it directly after. Pots must also be washed after use in the week after the cleaner has left so as to enable other Occupants the enjoyment of right to use.
12. Pets are only allowed in selective circumstances with prior written consent. The pet owner will be responsible for the pet and any damages it might incur.
13. Sleepover guests are allowed only after prior approval has been obtained from Management. An ID of the sleepover guest must be sent electronically prior for security reasons as well as a contact number.
14. Please note that no encroaching of the right of the occupants to enjoy the communal areas unencumbered will be entertained by e.g study groups or an unacceptable number of guests by any one Occupant.
15. Due to safety concerns the gate may be locked between 10pm and 5am by Occupants or Lessor.
