The Runoff Koala

It was one warm day in the Phillip Island of the Southeast Coast of Australia, and there was laying the royal cinereus koala family. The kids, Rosebud, Shu, and the youngest Chubbs were in their home (in a eucalyptus tree with no eucalyptus leaves) and playing koala in the middle!

Then Rosebud asks, “Can we please go outside and play, mom?”

Then replies her mom, “You may not play outside because there are predators that could kill you!!!”

“Yeah sure!!!” Chubbs yelled back.

“What did you say, Chubbs?!?” shouts his mom.

“Nothing!” said Chubbs scaredley.

“Yeah that’s what I thought.” whispered, mom.

The next day.....

All the koala cubs were wide awake and didn’t know what to do. So Chubbs decided to disobey his mother and ran off and to look for some eucalyptus leaves (because their tree was empty).

So of course Rosebud and Shu both said, “What are you doing, Chubbs?!?”

“Sneaking out and trying to find some eucalyptus leaves, DUH!!!”, Chubbs replied.

“Don’t you know why mom said no!” Rosebud said.

Chubbs replied sarcastically, “Yeah! Cause apparently there are some predators out there!”

“Well she only said that because there are dingos , owls, and goannas!!! replied, Shu.

“Fine.” said, Chubbs

Quick when Rosebud and Shu weren’t looking Chubbs jumped out of the window and ran off.

“Hey, Chubbs I’m glad you understood to not go outside (saying happily). Chubbs??? Why aren’t you talking???” said, Shu.

“OMG Chubbs ran off and disobeyed both us and mom!!!” Rosebud replied to Shu.

Then they saw their dad, Derrick watching TV on the news. Then one of the news people John Williams said, “All you koalas stay back because the dingos, owls, and goannas are coming to Phillip Island in Australia!!!”

“Oh no!!! Chubbs ran off!!! We should go and find him!” Rosebud said.

“What do you mean Chubbs ran off!” said her father.

Then Rosebud and Shu confessed, “Chubbs ran off and wanted to find food!” they said quickly.

“Oh no!!!” said father. “Guards go and find my son! He might not come back alive.” “Rosebud and Shu you will stay here with your mom.”

“Awwwww.... darn!” said, Shu

“We want to go out and help you find Chubbs.” they both said sadly.

“You can’t it’s too dangerous! There are the dingos, owls, and goannas out there. Now stay here and don’t move.” said Father.

“Okay, good luck, daddy.” the two cubs said quietly.

Then mom came in the room and asked the two cubs, “What is all this fuss about?”

“Chubbs ran off and disobeyed you to NOT go outside, but now daddy and the guards are looking for him and he said to stay here with you.” Rosebud replied sadly.

Then all of a sudden Rosebud and Shu started having teary eyes, so their mom gave them a hug. Then their mom said, “It’s ok I know they will find Chubbs, but right now we just have to think of the positives and calm down.”

So to calm down they decided to watch the news. On the news John Williams said, “Right now the royal family and guards are searching for the prince, Chubbs on Phillip Island, so please if you see chubbs somewhere contact (on your phone) 539 (the royal number) and tell them where you have seen, Chubbs. Thank You!”

Then all of a sudden the phone rang! “That could be someone who saw, Chubbs.” said Rosebud. So she quickly ran to the phone and answered it and said, “Hello?”

“Yes this is Mr. D , I found your brother he is in the tallest Eucalyptus tree in the woodland and bushland forest, He is apparently stuffing his bag with eucalyptus leaves.” said Mr. D.

“Ok thank you I will send my daddy there, Bye!” then she hanged up the phone. Then Rosebud said to her mom and brother, “Mr. D, found Chubbs he is in the tallest eucalyptus tree in the woodland and bushland eucalyptus forest, and apparently he is getting eucalyptus leaves.” said, Rosebud.

“Ok go and call your father so he knows where to find , Chubbs.” replied mom.

So Rosebud went to get the phone and call her dad and tell him the good news. But all of a sudden they had a black-out and all the lights and electricity got out and of course the phone wasn’t working so Rosebud couldn’t call her dad.

“Oh no what are we going to do?!?” screamed Rosebud.

“I don’t know! You’re asking the wrong koala for that!!!”

screamed Shu.

“How about we ask one of the guards here to go out and find your dad and tell him the good news about, Chubbs.” Mom suggests.

“Ok.” both Rosebud and Shu replied.

The Next Day....

The next day it wasn't good for the koalas because it was raining cats and dogs. But both, Rosebud, and Shu were wide awake like yesterday and really wanted to help and find Chubbs. So like, Chubbs they decided to both run away and help find, Chubbs..... then, their mom woke up when she saw both, Rosebud and Shu were escaping!

“COME HERE RIGHT NOW!!!” yelled, mom angrily to the cubs.

But the cubs didn't listen and kept moving on to the door. So then, mom quickly grabbed the phone and called dad! “Rosebud and Shu ran off to help you find , Chubbs.” she said quickly.”

“How did you lose the kids?!?” replied, dad.

“I was sleeping ok?!? Hey you know koalas like us sleep a lot!!!” said, mom.

“Fine, whatever! I'll go ahead and find them. Now you just stay home unlike the kids.” dad said worriedly. Then mom decided to lay on the couch and rest from the tiring day.

When dad was looking in the dark eucalyptus forest about 3 miles away from the kingdom, he saw tiny little koala footprints on the wet mud and thought, “Is it Chubb’s footprints on the ground?” Then he yelled “Guards go follow those footprints!”

“Yes, sir!” replied the guards.

It wasn’t good for Chubbs either so he said to himself, “Why did I do this? I’m stuck with Mr. D and I think the D stands for Dingo.” But then he heard footsteps coming his way and guess who it was Mr. D. “Hmmm. Are you ok, Chubbs?” he asked.

“No, not really.” replied, Chubbs

“Do you want to go to the fire to warm up?” But he said quietly, “So I could eat you?”

“Did you just say to eat me?!?” Chubbs said scaredly.

“No no no, I said so we could eat stew.” said, Mr. D mysteriously.

Then Chubbs heard a knock at the window and guess who it was..... Rosebud and Shu! “Oh my gosh, I’m so glad to see you guys!!!”said Chubbs “But hurry because Mr. D is planning to eat me for dinner!” But there was no luck until Mr. D came in the room and tried to pull Chubbs back in but two was better than one, so they pulled, Chubbs right out the window and ran back to their home (the castle). So when the three cubs got back to the castle they knocked on the door and surprised their mom when she saw Chubbs.

“OMG you guys found, Chubbs!” said Mom happily.

“Where’s dad we want to surprise him too!” said the cubs.

“Oh no! He thinks that Chubbs is still missing! Here let me call him!!!” But then it started raining and all the electricity went out so they couldn’t call their dad so the family got sad. Back to dad..... their GPS says they have reached their destination to Mr. D’s house. When they approached they knocked on the door but nobody answered. So they knocked again and still no answer so they decided to break down the door and they saw Mr. D and dad said, “What, are you deaf or something?!?”

“Of course I’m not deaf.” replied Mr. D

“Ok, then. Put your hands up and where’s my son?!?” dad started to yell.

“I don’t have your son anymore to eat..... I have you. MUAH HA HA HA HA!!!!!!” Mr. D said evilly. Quickly he grabbed the king and put him in a room with no food or water. Then Mr. D asked the guards, “Now do you want to be stuck in the room just like the king?” “No, sir!!!” yelled back the guards.

“Ok now go and clean something up you big rats!!!” yelled Mr. D

“Yah we’re the BIG rats!!!” yelled back the guards.

When the cubs and mom were at home, they really wanted to help but they were scared to go outside because of the predators, but they just remembered that they have a whole army which was the kingdom. So proudly they all marched out the door with their army and headed toward Mr. D's house..... when they arrived they knocked just like the king and the guards approached. But nobody answered. So they walked away a few feet and ran back and tackled the door and they saw dad in a room.

So of course, the kids started crying and running to dad and they screamed to Mr. D, "LET HIM OUT HE NEVER DID ANYTHING TO YOU.....yet!!!!!!" Then they all huddled up and thought of a plan to make a doll that looked like a koala and make him eat that instead of dad. So they made Mr. D go to the store to get the vegetables for the soup. So while he was at the store, the royal family got the king out and replaced him with the doll that looked like him and ran back to the kingdom.

When they go there they quickly got their dad food and water (eucalyptus leaves and water) to prevent him from dying because of Mr. D:. But then Mr. D arrived at the castle door and had a knife with the fake koala on it and he took it off and aimed for the king but instead he got Chubbs and stabbed him. Then quickly Rosebud and Shu took his knife and stabbed him a bunch of times for stabbing their brother.

Quickly the family called 911 and they took Chubbs to the ICU (which is the place where animals might die). The whole family came and sat in the waiting room where the doctor would notify them about, Chubbs. About a few minutes later, the doctor/nurse came and she said, “ Chubbs will be fine but you need to feed him crushed eucalyptus instead of whole.” “Ok, thank you doc.” the family said happily. Then they saw the doctor roll him in with a wheelchair.

Once they got, Chubbs home they were all glad that Chubbs was still alive and they lived without any predators nearby and lived happily ever after..... for now...

~~~~~The End~~~~~
