

Love Leads Us Through the Wind and Waves

Love leads us through the wind and waves.
Love leads us to the shore
where Miriam sings a song of praise
and heartened voices soar.

From ocean depths of suffering
or barren lands of grief,
without this Love no voice could sing
or find its way to speak.

Companion to our grief and pain,
Love hears each silent plea,
and like the sweetness after rain
enfolds us tenderly.

With mercy, peace, and gentleness,
Love strengthens and sustains—
a promise kept to heal and bless,
a promise that remains.

To Miriam's song we all may bring a fragment, word, or phrase—
new stories we proclaim and sing
of Love's unfailing grace.

Text: Jeannette M. Lindholm, b. 1961

Text © 2021 Jeannette M. Lindholm, admin. Augsburg Fortress

Permission granted for local use through April 1, 2023

Congregations with OneLicense accounts are asked to report use of this hymn through OneLicense