

Good morning Orange High School!!!!
This is Ava Garcia and this is Danielle Sperber with your Daily Lion Reminders for Friday, May 2nd.

“As part of NHS’s National Student Leadership Week, we would like to recognize Junior Carolyn Jang nominated by Mrs. McNally. When students started out the school year to learn about the new cell phone policy at OHS, several complained. Caroline took on the challenge of developing a study survey, interviewing our Principal, and writing not just one but two well written articles presenting the facts (and laws) involving the new policy and also conveying students’ perspectives in a respectful way. Her article earned her a well-deserved Scholastic Silver Award in Journalism. It also laid the groundwork for her becoming a significant Editor for the Orange Outlook. Thank you Carolyn for being an outstanding OHS student leader!”

“We would also like to recognize Sophomore Sarah Gent nominated by Mrs. McNally. Sarah is a reliable and calm presence as a Book Buddy. This was the 1st year we had students participate with Orange Integrated Preschool and in a small classroom where absences were very visible, she could consistently be counted upon to take a leadership role. In addition, she quietly took the lead in promoting all of the OHS plays/musicals on the Outlook student page this school year - making sure even if she wasn’t in a starring role, that each performance got the attention of students to be aware of the performances through their chromebooks.
Thank you Sarah for being an outstanding OHS student leader!”

“At 1.15 today (end of 9th period), we will have a state send off for the OHS Symphonic Band and the OHS Wind Ensemble. They will both be performing in the OMEA State Band Performance this evening at North Royalton High School.”

“There will be a GSA meeting this Friday, May 2nd after school in room 119!”
